HER ALMA MATER

Successful Reunion of the Pine Grove Academy.

AT BEAUTIFUL PINE GROVE PARK

Fine Weather Prevailed and the Attendance Was Large—Over 1,000 People Present.

MANY INTERESTING SPEECHES MADE

The first annual re-union of the Alumni of Pine Grove Academy was held in the beautiful grove near the little village of Pine Grove, Friday, June 18th. The grounds were tastefully decorated with flags and bunting and presented a fine appearance. The splendid weather which prevailed all day brought an immense concourse of people, who seemed to most heartily enjoy themselves and remained until the festivities were all over. The Boalsburg and Pine Grove bands were present and added greatly to the enjoyment of the occasion by rendering some very pretty pieces. The crowd, as we said above, was quite large: it was estimated that there were over 1,000 people on the grounds; many came from Bellefonte, State College and other places by railroad, while hundreds drove in private conveyances. The best of order prevailed all day and the hospitality extended to the visitors by the people of Pine Grove will be long remembered to their credit. A platform was erected in the woods and the exercises of the day were all held there.

The meeting was called to order by the President of the Association, Capt. W. H. Fry, at about 10 o'clock. The first thing on the program was the devotional exercises, led by Rev. William Gemmill, of Allenwood. The temporary organization was next in order, when the following officers were elected: Judge Jas. A. Beaver, of Bellefonte, President; Hon. J. H. Osmer, of Franklin, Venango county, and Albert Hoy, of State College, Vice Presidents; J. K. Bottorff, of Tyrone, and George R. Meek, of Bellefonte, Secretaries.

The address of welcome and a history of the institution were delivered by our fellow-townsman, D. F. Fortney, Esq., after which everyone joined heartily in singing "Auld Lang Syne," led by that famous old singer, F. E. Meek, of Altoona.

The response to the address of welcome was delivered by ex-Judge David L. Krebs, of Clearfield.

The next thing in order was the dinner, which was served in the lovely pine grove and was highly enjoyed by all present. Everybody was made to feel at home and there were plenty of good things to eat for everyone.

After dinner the meeting was again opened by an eloquent address delivered by Hon. J. H. Osmer, a former student of the old Academy.

The committee on permanent organization were Miss Kate Moser, Rev. Wm. Gemmill and Mr. J. K. Bottorff, whose report was handed in and adopted. The officers named are as follows:

President—James A. Beaver.

Vice President—Capt. W. H. Fry.

Sec'y and Treas.—J. K. Bottorff.

Letters of regret, of those not able to be present, were read from Dr. G. W. Atherton, Charles A. Ramsey, Mrs. Mary Beals, Rev. D. M. Moser and others.

Addresses were made by the Revs. Gemmill, Krider and Black, and Gov. Beaver, after which Miss Kate Moser read a beautiful poem entitled "The Silver Grays." It was inscribed to the Alumni of the Pine Grove Academy and Seminary, and was as follows:

"THE SILVER GRAY."

A banquet is spread grand forest old,
And numberless guests have been bidden,
The June days are bright, and hearts as true, gold,
Are bounding from nooks-so long hidden;
Their school-life is o'er, and Life's school's at its noon,
Yet they come at the call of their Mother,
Less agile, maybe, in a "Silver Gray" crown
To meet and to greet one another.

A jubilee year, the forty-fifth in the train,
Has dawned on this fair institution,
The dear classic halls and haunts still remain,
But where is the precious fruition?
To-day it is garnered, from near and from far
The pride of life's every vocation—
A "Silver Gray" band, each wearing a star
Won in service for home, church and nation.

Far back in the Fifties, a fairy's light wand,
Woke Fathers and Mothers to duty
"Our sons and our daughters must take a high stand,
Quaff from Learning's clear fountain of beauty
Open wide the rude gates and bid all come in":-
Till rooms bare and small were o'erflowing;
Then rose in the forest, this structure so fine,
To keep steady pace with the growing.

The frail barque was launched, with a Ward at the helm,
Steering straight for the lighthouse in view;
As captain and pilot, and oarsman as well,
He landed his famous brave crew.
Soon Campbell succeeded, and won himself fame
As the dignified man of the corps,
While McKennon the youthful, the linguist in name,
Was called early to Heaven's bright shore.

When the boat almost stranded a Thomas prevailed
(who now sleeps near his labors of love,)
He steered the wreck onward, with sails all unfurled,
Till success seemed to smile from above.
Scores of his pupils, ever chant this sweet song-
"Our Mentor's at rest, his works were sublime."

The names of new leaders in passing along,
Are a Hughes and a Rhone with Aiken in line.

Now we revel once more in dear Library Hall,
Hear the voices that charmed us of yore,
"Athlonow" and "Prescott", each bound to excel
With graceful "Euphronia"- versed in lore.
Many voices are hushed, faces far away,
Aching hearts that refuse to be stilled,
Yet a Legion remains, this band "Silver Gray"
Who will mark every duty fulfilled.

The reveille is sounding, our sweet dream is past,
"Alma Mater's" rich feast's ready spread,
An ovation it is, from first to the last,
As with speech, toast and music we're fed.
Gifted sons have done nobly, gained fresh renown,
And the humbler won laurels to-day.
While the planners, and friends of the dear old town
Reaped Heaven's blessings from the "Silver Gray."

"ALUMNUS."

A very impressive service was held at the cemetery over the grave of Prof. Thomas. It was called to order by Capt. Fry, of Pine Grove, after which Capt. W. H. Mattern, of Half Moon, offered a very earnest prayer, and then that beautiful old hymn, "Nearer My God to Thee," was sung with much feeling. Rev. G. W. Fortney, of Turbotsville, was then introduced and paid a high tribute to the memory of Professor Thomas. He was followed by the fighting parson, Rev. Gemmill, who spoke in his address of F. F. Patton, to whom Prof. Thomas was largely indebted for his education. This closed the meeting in the cemetery and they adjourned to meet in the wood again.

Upon reassembling in the woods Dr. L. C. Thomas, of Latrobe, Pa., son of Prof. Thomas, was introduced and made a very interesting and instructive address, relating many reminiscences of the early school life at the old Academy.

Rev. Gemmill, acting as chairman of the evening meeting, introduced Rev. G. W. Fortney, who made a brilliant address in behalf of the old institution. The closing address was made by D. F. Fortney, Esq., of this place, after which a vote of thanks was tendered to Capt. W. H. Fry for his untiring efforts during the past three months to make this affair a success.

The exercises were closed by the singing of that grand old hymn, "America," which, with an echo, resounded through the woods, and the benediction, pronounced by Rev. Mattern, and one of the most successful social meetings ever held was brought to an end.

—"Dr. Fowler's Ext. of wild Strawberry is considered a necessity in our house. It is an excellent remedy for summer complaints, especially with children." Wm. Reid. 66 College street Buffalo, N.Y.

TYRONE STORM-SWEPT

The Elements Caused Much Damage There Saturday Afternoon.

LOSSES WILL BE VERY HEAVY

It Raged for Half an Hour and Devastation Marked Its Path — Large Barns Blown Down and Also a Bridge.

FARMS AND GARDENS SUFFER MUCH

Tyrone was visited by a very severe storm on Saturday afternoon last which wrought great destruction.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon dark clouds were observed moving rapidly from the northwest and at the same time a similar cloud came from the southeast, both preceeded by high and violent wind, rain, thunder and lightning. At 3.10 the blizzard, or cyclone, struck the city in all its fury, reaping a pathway of devastation and destruction fully two miles wide. At 3.30 the storm was satisfied with what it had done and played quits. The southwestern limit of its pathway was about Grazierville, the northeastern about the outskirts of East Tyrone. Within that scope and as far east as Birmingham thousands of dollars worth of property was destroyed or rendered useless. The hail storm which came in the wake was the most terrific ever witnessed in that section and covered the ground from two to three inches, in size in globular form from a pea to a hickory nut, and in large chunks of irregular shaped ice as large as an unhulled walnut.

The first to meet the outposts of the coming forces was the large barn on the farm of Sprankle Brothers, north of town, which was totally destroyed. Two horses and some cattle were imbedded in the debris and seriously injured. The next was the large green houses and truck gardens of Arnold & Miller, across the hill and near the Oak Grove cemetery, which are a total wreck, involving a heavy loss and all winter and spring labor. The next to feel the fury of the elements was the beautiful shaded hill north of the town, every tree being stripped of its verdure, and it now presents a sombre November appearance.

Next came the central city itself, where havoc reigned supreme, largely in broken and demolished window panes by the thousands. The Ward house, the North Star tannery, Agnew's photograph gallery, all south of the bridge on South Pennsylvania avenue, and also the station and warehouse building were in the centre of the turmoil, and suffered greatly as also many other buildings having a north exposure on Pennsylvania, Logan, North Washington, North Lincoln, Cameron and Jefferson avenues had a similar experience with many of the cross streets.

West Tenth street, owing to the flood from the hillside and upper parts of town, was perfectly inundated with one or two feet of water, filling cellars and many of the low floored store rooms.

On West Washington avenue destruction was great, as it stood in the brunt of the battle. One of the heaviest losers, aside from destruction to his buildings, is Truck Gardener Joseph Penonia. Aside from his three-fourths acre strawberry patch in town, the berries just ripening, he has met a complete loss in his vegetable gardens of three or more acres, just southwest of town. All the Pingree cultivated lots on the Denglinger, Poorman & Co. improvement, have met the same sad disaster. Fruit trees divested of their fruit, gardens impoverished, flower gardens stripped clean and clear and everything presenting a ragged and negligent appearance and a woeful want. The upper end of town, near the paper mills, was on the outskirts and did not suffer to the extent of us other Christians.

The birds were great sufferers and the chicken family was horribly massacred Thousands of young chicks lay scattered around, some people losing as many as 50 to 60 from their coops. Fowls, so great was the storm, appeared to be dumbfounded or bewildered and rushed right into the midst of it, and yesterday they could not be persuaded to leave their pens.

After the storm spent its force of 30 minutes' duration in Tyrone, it took limited east and demolished the crops on the farm of H. A. Gripp, at Elkhurst, and thence to the 800 acre farm of A. G. Morris, where not a stock of wheat, rye, oats or corn, or grass, or a fruit tree remained untouched. The same can be said of the farms of John Krider and others adjoining up to Thomas Coleman's. At lower Birmingham the wooden covered bridge, which crosses the Juniata river between the old tower and the railroad station, was blown down.

The only accident reported to us was that of Mrs. David Rodgers, who was on her way from her home on Washington avenue to the home of Mr. Ecroth, on the Denglinger-Poorman lands. She took refuge in the delivery wagon of E. D. Mock, and when the storm came the horse frightened and turning suddenly, she was thrown out, the wheels passing over her. She rescued herself, and through the pelting storm reached her destination, and afterwards was taken to her home, where she is under the care of a physician. —Altoona Tribune.

Beats the Worlds Record.

Fifteen thousand people united in cheering Jimmy Michael and Eddie McDuffee and encouraged them to put forth every effort in their match race at Charles River park Boston, Thursday afternoon, June 17th.

It was the most thrilling event of its kind ever run in this country. Jimmy Michael forged to the front in the first lap of the fourteenth mile, and at the finish led McDuffy by about 30 yards.

Michael's time was 29m 12s, and he lowered his previous world's record for that distance 2m 22 2-5s. The average time for the mile during the race was about 1m 56 2-5s, and the last mile was ridden in 1m 58s. A few days ago it was estimated by McDuffee that the miles would be reeled off at about 1m 58s, which shows that McDuffee did not go into the race with his eyes shut.

Michael's record beats the worlds record by 1 minute and 59 seconds. It was made on a Union wheel.

A DARING ESCAPE

George McCormick and Wm. Hanna Escape From Bellefonte Jail.

THEY NOW SING "THEY'RE AFTER ME"

They Broke Out Sometime Monday Night By Prying Out the Stones Around A Cell Window With an Iron Bar—The Escape Not Discovered Until Morning.

A DESCRIPTION OF THE MEN

On Tuesday the town was startled by the rumor that some of the prisoners had escaped from the Centre county jail. A reporter of the REPUBLICAN hastened at once to the jail to ascertain what there was in it, and found that it was only too true. Sometime during the night James, alias George McCormick and William Hanna made their escape from Bellefonte's bastile and left for parts unknown.

The manner of their escape was as follows: McCormick and Hanna were locked in separate cells on the second floor of the jail, but sometime during the night McCormick picked the lock in his cell door and made his way into the corridor; from there he picked the lock into Hanna's cell. Once together, these companions in crime took the straw tick off the cell cot and placed it against the door to keep the rest of the prisoners from hearing them. Then, with an iron bar, which they had found in another prisoner's cell and which was used around the jail for hammering nails, they succeeded in prying out several of the large stones around the cell window, making a hole about two feet square. Then, by tying blankets together, they lowered themselves to the ground. They were now in the jail yard, but had a stone wall ten or fifteen feet high to scale before gaining their freedom. By means of some loose boards they gained the roof an out house, then in the same manner scaled the high wall, and dropping on the other side were off for a more agreeable clime.

They done their work so quietly that no one knew of their escape until morning, when the turnkey went to give them their breakfast. Even the other prisoners in the jail did not hear them; although the man who occupied the cell adjoining Hanna's told the REPUBLICAN reporter that he was awakened by a slight noise towards morning, but paid no attention to it and soon was asleep again.

As soon as the escape was discovered Sheriff Cronister and Deputy Sheriff Jackson were aroused and they at once telegraphed a description of the missing men to all parts of this and adjoining counties. The crime for which they were held was the robbing of the tailor shop of Charles McClelland several weeks ago. They were to have been tried at the August term of court. Their description, as furnished by the sheriff, is as follows:

William Hanna—45 years old, hair slightly gray mixed with black, height 5 feet 8 inches, weight from 225 to 250 pounds. He has a large stomach and chest; gray eyes.

George McCormick—Sandy mustache, sandy hair, blue eyes, very fair complexion; when last weighed tipped the beam at 200 pounds. About 42 years of age, and is 5 feet 11 inches in height.

The escape of these men is not the first ever made from the Centre county jail. There were others, the most noted of which was that made by John Wilson, the slayer of Harry Waterhouse. Wilson made his escape on the night of December 24, 1890, by digging his way out of his cell, then by means of the scaffold on which Andrews and Hopkins met their justly merited end, and which was waiting to do a like service for him, he gained the jail wall, and sliding down a telephone pole which had been placed conveniently near, he was off and has never been heard of since.

As soon as it was reported on the streets that some of the prisoners had escaped the cry went up that Cornelly was among the number. But such was not the case, although, no doubt. Cornelly had the chance to go if he had so desired. Cornelly informed the REPUBLICAN reporter that he was here to stay; Bellefonte was his home in the past and he expected it to be his home in the future. He also expressed full confidence in his ability to prove his innocence.

JAMES W. STORM.

An Old Citizen of Tyrone Passes to The World Beyond.

James W. Storm died at his home in Tyrone Saturday morning at ten minutes before four o'clock, after suffering from kidney trouble the past three or four years.

James William Storm was born at Newry in Blair county on the 27th of December, 1824, and was 72 years, 5 month and 22 days old at death. He learned the trade of cabinet maker in youth and worked at that until after his marriage by Rev. J. Bradley to Miss Mary A. Masters on the 4th of October, 1848. Locating in Altoona some time later Mr. Storm engaged work with the Penusylvania railroad company and became an engineer. With his family he removed from Altoona to Tyrone about thirty years ago and continued to work for the same company at this place as a machinists. Later he was superintendent of the Tyrone Gas and Water company for about two years, at the end of which time he again engaged with the railroad company and remained in their employment about ten years, finally retiring from work about four years ago. Being a locomotive engineer he served in that capacity for the United States government during the civil war.

Deceased served fifteen months as a soldier during the Mexican war in Company B, Shover's Volunteer Artillery. Of his service in Mexico Mr. Storm delighted in referring to during his life-time, especially during the latter years of his life. He was a member of St. Matthew's Catholic church of Tyrone, and strictly consistent with his profession. As a citizen, though not inclined to prominence in public matters he always took a deep interest in the affairs of his town, county, state and country and was therefore a good citizen. His friends were numerous, and his death will be generally regretted in the community. Surviving the deceased are his wife and five children, as follows: Mrs. Patrick Walsh and E. J. Storm, of Tyrone; Eugene F. Storm, of Altoona; Mrs. William Kolbenschlag, of DuBois, and William C. Storm of Bellefonte.—Tyrone Herald.

DEATH OF MRS. JOHN C. MILLER.

Passed Away Sunday Evening At The Residence of Her Brother James H. Potter.

On Sunday evening at nine o'clock, Mrs. Mary Potter Miller died at the residence of her brother James H. Potter on Spring street; after an illness of several weeks from ulceration of the bowels. Some weeks ago she submitted to an operation at one of the hospitals in Philadelphia, with the hope of relief, but it proved unavailing.

Deceased was the wife of John C. Miller of Rock View, she was born in Bellefonte, August 19th 1850, and was therefore 46 years 10 months and 1 day old at the time of her death.

Mrs. Miller was much respected by all who knew her, as a kind neighbor and friend, and a devoted christian lady. She united with the Presbyterian church early in life, and was always a consistent member, and regular in her attendance at the services of the sanctuary.

She leaves a loving husband and one child, Charles, to mourn the loss of a faithful wife and mother, also the following brothers and sisters: Miss Tamazine Potter, of Philadelphia; Miss Kittie Potter and Mr. James H. Potter, of Bellefonte; and Mr. George L. Potter, of Fort Wayne, Ind.

The funeral will take place Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock from the Presbyterian church. Dr. Wm. Laurie will have charge of the services and the interment will be made in the Union cemetery.

Fainting Spells and Dizziness Follow La Grippe.

WE HEAR LESS ABOUT THIS DISEASE THAN FORMERLY, BUT IT IS STILL VERY PREVALENT.

From the New Era, Greensburg, Ind.

A noteworthy instance of the fallibility of even the most skillful physicians is furnished in the case of Mrs. J. E. Smith, of Greensburg, Ind.

For four years Mrs. Smith was afflicted with a nervous affection that finally left her almost completely helpless and which the physician who first attended her said positively could not be cured. Subsequently, a number of physicians in this and other cities, declared her case to be hopeless.

To-day in spite of the verdict of the doctors, and without their aid, Mrs. Smith is perfectly well. To a New Era reporter she told the story of her extraordinary recovery.

"Five years ago I had a severe attack of la grippe, followed later by another. During the four years following, my health continued to decline, until finally I was hardly able to move.

"After having the grippe," said Mrs. Smith, "I was able to be about for awhile, and to do some work. But in a short time after the second attack, I began to experience nervousness, and often had fainting spells, my trouble being similar to hysterics. I gradually grew worse, and in a short while I became subject to such spells of nervousness that I could do no work, being scarcely able to move about the house. I could not sleep and could not eat. I would lie awake nights, my muscles twitching continuously. My physician called it nervousness of the throat and breast, and after treating me for several months said that my case or any case like mine positively could not be cured. Different physicians in Greensburg and other cities who attended me, agreed that my case was hopeless. For three years I lingered in misery, trying different doctors and remedies, but none did me any noticeable good. Finally my druggist advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, which was so highly recommended by newspapers. As a last resort I tried them, thinking that if they did me no good death might soon give me relief. The first dose helped me, and with every dose I improved. I took about three boxes and a half and was completely cured, as you see me to-day, perfectly healthy and able to do all my own work."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effect of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, that tired feeling resulting from nervous prostration, all diseases resulting from vitiated humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities and all forms of weakness. In men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of whatever nature.

These pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., and are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade-mark and wrapper at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, and are never sold in bulk. They may be had of all druggists.

Ursinus College Commencement.

At the Commencement of Ursinus College, held June 13 to 17, in addition to the degrees conferred upon the members of the graduating class, the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon Rev. F. F. Bahner, A. M., of Waynesboro, Pa.; Rev. A. E. Dahlman, A. M., of Buffalo, N. Y.; Rev. J. H. Hendricks, A. M., of Collegeville, Pa., Rev. J. Stanley Burnfield, A. M., of Philadelphia.

The address before the literary societies was delivered by the Hon. Charles Heber Clark (Max Adler), of Conshohocken, Pa.; the Alumni oration by A. W. Bomberger, Esq., A. M., of Norristown, and the Commencement oration by Hampton L. Carson, Esq., LL. D., of Philadelphia.

At the meeting of the Trustees the Treasurer reported that the productive endowment of the College had increased during the year $30,000.

McKinley To Visit Chicago.

Chicago, June 17.—President McKinley and his Cabinet will come to Chicago to take part in the unveiling of John A. Logan statue in the Lake Front Park. The President will review a procession of veterans on that day that promises to be one of the biggest in recent years, the longest line of regiments from the regular army that has marched since the war, the entire Illinois militia of 7,000 men, and Governors and their staffs from many of the Western States.

Judge Richard Tuthill brought the promise from the President to be present at the ceremony. He went to Nashville and caught Mr. McKinley in the very act of finding time to get away from Washington and Presidential duties. President McKinley promised to come. He made it with the single reservation that the day—July 22—should be the day of the adjournment of Congress, or the day very close to the last day of the session.

Carriage Tests At Sandy Hook.

Sandy Hook, N. J., June 17.—A twelve-inch disappearing gun carriage, designed by Capt. William Crozier, is being successfully tested before the Board of Ordnance and Fortifications. Capt. Frank Heath, who is superintending the operations, says that this is the first twelve-inch disappearing carriage ever built in this country, and as far as the test has proceeded it works smoothly and perfectly, but that there are too many vessels in the way to-day to fire with safety as many rounds as he desires.

Another Gordon disappearing carriage for a ten-inch rifle is also undergoing a trial at the proving grounds. Capt. Crozier successfully designed eight and ten-inch disappearing carriages, some of which are now installed in fortifications.

Dropsy Cured with One Bottle.

A great cure and a great testimony. "For ten years I suffered greatly from Heart Disease, Fluttering of the Heart and Smothering Spells, made my life a torment. I was confined to my bed. Dropsy set in. My physician told me to prepare for the worst. I tried Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart—One dose gave great relief, one bottle cured the Dropsy and my heart."—Mrs. James Adams Syracuse, N. Y. Sold by, J. N. & S. Krumrine.

—Barbers say that they can tell which side a man habitually sleeps on, because his mustache grows longer on the other side.

New Industry for Bellefonte.

Bellefonte is to have a corn-cob pipe manufactory and that pretty soon. The plant will be located in one of the buildings at the car shops and will employ from ten to fifteen men and boys. The capacity will be five thousand pipes per day, which are to be made in about twenty varieties.

Burgess Frank Naginey and druggists Sydney Krumrine are the financial backers of the enterprise and Mr. Ringbeck, of Columbus Ohio, a gentleman of many years experience in the business, will superintend the work. It is expected that the factory will be in full operation by July 1st.

The corn-cob pipe busines is limited to about a half dozen factories in the United States and it is said to be very profitable. The cobs used for the manufacture of the pipes must be at least 1¼ inches in diameter and if they cannot be procured here will be brought from Missouri.

Might Have Been a serious Accident.

Miss Mame Keller of Bishop street while cleaning a dress with gasoline Thursday was set on fire, but nothing serious resulted from the accident. Some friend prescribing that this liquid and warm water was good for the clothes, she resolved to try it. The fluid not being warm enough for its application, she placed it on the rear of the stove to heat, when it ignited, the flames spreading over the entire surface of the stove, and covering her as well but by a severe struggle she succeeded in fighting them from her. Her hands and wrists were burned some, but not serious.

There is a Class of People

Who are injured by the use of coffee Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over ¼ as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15c. and 25c. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

The First Engine.

The first steam engine built in this county was by machinist Landis, of Bellefonte. It was constructed for the job and newspaper office of J. G. Kurtz, publisher of the Bellefonte Central Press, and proved a success. The engine was made about 36 years ago, and some 15 years ago was purchased by Wm. Condo, of Aaronsburg, who used it in his cabinet-maker shop.—Centre Reporter.

—Stewart L. Woodford, of New York, who has just been nominated to the Spanish mission, will be remembered as the gentleman who made the Commencement address at the Pennsylvania State College in 1890.

—The old "white church," at Hunter's, that has been the home of Buffalo Run Presbyterians for years and a landmark in Benner township, has been torn down and a new building will replace it.

—It is said that the Howard Water Works with water convenient a cheap dam and 1½ miles of main cost. $7.500

QUEEN LIL KICKS.

The Ex-Queen of the Hawaiian Islands Has a Grievance.

OPPOSED TO THAT RECENT TREATY

She Thinks Everything is All Wrong and That the Treaty Would Be Irksome on the Part of the Natives.

ABSTRACT FROM McKINLEY'S MESSAGE

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Ex Queen Liliuokalani, of Hawaii, this afternoon filed a voluminous protest in the office of the Secretary of State against the ratification of the Hawaiian treaty. It was delivered into the hands of Secretary Sherman by Mr. Joseph Heleuhe, representing the native Hawaiians, duly commissioned by two of their patriotic leagues. Mr. Heleuhe was accompanied by Capt. Palmer, the American secretary of Liliuokalani. Mr. Sherman treated the bearers most cordially but gave no indication of his action in the matter.

In the protest the ex-Queen says: "I declare such treaty to be an act of wrong towards the native and part native people of Hawaii, an invasion of the rights of the ruling chiefs, invasion of international rights, both toward my people and toward friendly nations with whom they have made treaties, the perpetuation of the fraud whereby the constitutional government was overthrown and an act of gross injustice done to me."

She says further that she yielded her authority in Hawaii to the forces of the United States to avoid bloodshed and because she recognized the futility of a conflict with so formidable a power.

Hawaiian Annexation.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The following is an abstract of the message sent to the senate yesterday by President McKinley to accompany the Hawaiian treaty:

"The incorporation of the Hawaiian Islands into the body politics of the United States is the necessary and fitting sequel to the chain of events which from a very early period of our history has controlled the intercourse and prescribed the association of the United States and the Hawaiian Islands. The predominance of American interests in that neighboring territory was first asserted in 1820 by sending to the islands a representative agent of the United States. In brief, from 182 to 1893 the course of the United States toward the Hawaiian Islands has consistently favored their autonomous welfare, with the exclusion of all foreign influence save our own to the extent of upholding eventual annexation as the necessary outcome of that policy.

"Not only is the union of the Hawaiian territory to the United States no new scheme, but it is the inevitable consequence of the relation steadfastly maintained with that mid-Pacific domain for three-quarters of a century. Its accomplishment, despite successive denials and postponments, has been merely a question of time. While its failure in 1893 may not be a cause of congratulation, it is certainly a proof of the disinterestedness of the United States. The delay of four years has abundantly sufficed to establish the right and the ability of the republic of Hawaii to enter, as a sovereign contractant, upon a conventional union with the United States, thus realizing a purpose held by the Hawaiian people and proclaimed by successive Hawaiian governments through some seventy years of their virtual dependence upon the benevolent protection of the United States. Under such circumstances annexation is not a charge; it is a consummation."

Tossed on the Foaming Billows

You may never have been, but if you cross the Atlantic, no matter how smooth the watery expanse, without sea sickness you are—well, a lucky voyager, that is all. Old tars who have spent their lives on the ocean waves, who were almost born, so to speak, with their "sea legs on," suffer now and then with sea sickness in very tempestuous weather. Sea captains, tourists, commercial travelers and yatchsmen say that there is no finer safe guard against nausea than Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and it has been equally reliable as a preventive by invalids who travel by steamboat and railroad, and who sometimes suffer as much in those conveyances as ocean travelers do in steamships. Biliousness, constipation, sick headache and disorders of the stomach caused by oppressive climatic influences or unwholesome or unaccustomed food or water, always yield to the Bitters speedily. This popular medicine also remedies rheumatic, kidney and nervous disorders, and the infirmaties incident to increasing years.

Barnato A Suicide.

LONDON, June 15.—A special dispatch from Funchal, Island of Madeira, off the west coast of Morocco, says that on the arrival there of the British steamship Scott, which left Table Bay (Cape Town) on June 2, for Southhampton, it was announced that Barney Barnato, the South African "Diamond King," who was among the passengers, had committed suicide by leaping overboard. His body was recovered.

The sudden rise to wealth of Barney Barnato is one of the romances of the nineteenth century. He began life as a very poor boy in London and after various shifts he became an employee at a very small salary in a circus. While there he met the woman who afterwards became his wife. She, it is said, was a bare back rider. He drifted to South Africa, and after hard work and some good investments he laid the foundation of a colossal fortune. For several years he practically ruled the Kaffir or diamond mine stock market in conjunction with Cecil Rhoades, the De Beers people and a few others. His fortune was at one time estimated to be from £20,000,000 to £30,000,000, but a recent slump in his holdings and some unlucky speculations are said to have wiped it almost, if not entirely, out

Must Show Place of Residence.

The auditor general of Pennsylvania having decided that railroad bond owners in Pennsylvania must pay a tax in this state, the treasurers of some of the Pennsylvania railroads have announced that hereafter coupons of such bonds, when presented for payment, must be accompanied by a statement showing whether the owner resides in Pennsylvania or not. Unless advised that the owner resides outside the state, the railroad company will deduct the amount of the tax before paying the interest.

Substitute Postal Clerks Recognized.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—A mooted question in postoffices throughout the country has been settled by a decision of Acting Postmaster General Health, giving official recognition of the department to substitute postoffice clerks. Postmasters at first-class offices may select from their eligible list a sufficient number of clerks to perform the work of the regular clerks temporarily absent from duty, such substitutes to be appointed to the first regular vacancy in the clerical force occuring thereafter. All sums paid to a substitute clerk must be receipted for by the regular clerk. Substitutes must receive the regular salary of the one for whom they have performed service.

Italian Nearly Killed.

REYNOLDSVILLE, Pa., June 16.—An Italian named Benine committed an assault on Miss Lizzie Brunton, a 17 year-old girl, at Loudon mine yesterday afternoon. The girl was cleaning house when the man rushed at her. She jumped through a window and he followed catching her in the yard. The girl's brother was attracted by her cries for help and struck the Italian with a peice of iron, rendering him unconscious. He then beat him until it was thought he was dead.

The Italian was brought here last night almost dead. Squire Neff sent him to the Brookville jail to-day. His condition is serious.

Catarrh for Twenty Years and Cured in a Few Days.

Nothing too simple, nothing too hard for Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder to relief in an instant. Hon. George Taylor, of Scanlop., says: "I have been a martyr to Catarrh for 20 years, constant houghing, droppingin the throat and pain in the head, very offensive breath. I tried Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. The first application gave instant relief. After useing a few bottles all these symptoms of Catarrh left me. It is a great remedy. Sold by, J. N. & S. Krumrine.

Eddie Bald Won.

BINGHAMITON, N. Y., June 16.—A large crowd was present at the state circuit meet to-day. Eddie Bald again defeated the circuit chasers in the mile open professional, although his old rival. Tom Cooper, made him put on his best sprint to do it. Cooper was second and Church third. Time, 2:10. After the races Bald gave an exhibition mile, going the route in 2:01 flat.

To Wed After Her Suitor Shot Himself.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 16.—The engagement of Miss Smith, the famous Kentucky beauty, daughter of President Smith, of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, to a wealthy Atlanta man, is announced. Miss Smith had been wooed by young Creston Thornton, and her recent refusal of him prompted him to shoot himself.

—Last week there were 562 inmates in the Huntingdon reformatory.

Dog on Wreck.

The steamship "Munchen," of the North German Lloyd line, which reached port last night, brought with her the crew of the French fishing brigantine "Marie," which had been dismasted in a gale. The "Marie" was waterlogged and in a sinking condition when the "Munchen" sighted the craft.

The hero of the party was Noir a shaggy Newfoundland. While the crew were dropping into the boats from the abandoned vessel, one of them fell overboard. In an instant Noir leaped into the water, and as the man rose he seized his blouse in his teeth, supporting him until his companions pulled him into the boat. Noir then scrambled in and wagged his tail happily, while the rescued seaman hugged him in a true French burst of gratitude.—New York Herald, April 29.

Mexican Children.

In Mexico, a group of lads from seven to twelve will meet and each boy will decorously lift his hat, and salutations of extreme courtesy will be exchanged, and then comes the boyish chatter, the run and the laughter, the same as anywhere. Boys here treat their elders with respect. An old man or woman is not the butt of the youth of Mexico; rather for the old people are reserved the shadiest seats under the trees in the park. A Mexican boy or girl on entering a room walks around among the company shaking hands with all, and on leaving the room does the same. Urvanity is taught in the public schools, as arithmetic is at home. There is no one jostled on the street; the best seat in a horse-car is promptly given up to the ladies, who never fail gracefully to acknowledge the favor. I have never seen a Mexican gentleman fail to give his seat to a woman, whether she was richly or poorly dressed.—Rural Home.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

The undersigned having been restored to health by simple means, after suffering for several years with a severe lung affection and that dread disease Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To those who desire it we will cheerfully send (free of charge) a copy of the prescription used, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitis and all throat and lung maladies. ### Confessed to Two Murders.

PAINTSVILLE, Ky., June 17.—Washington Craft, the primitive Baptist Minister, on trial in the Floyd Circuit Court for the murder of Londell Higgins, fourteen years ago, was placed on the witness stand to-day. He denied killing Higgins claiming he was forty miles away at the time the murder was committed.

On cross-examination Craft broke down and admitted killing his uncle Wiley Craft, and William Cook, fifteen years ago. Craft has long been suspected of killing these men.

Bicycle Race at Renovo.

The Renovo Ramblers bicycle club, of Renovo, are making arrangements to give two road races on the Fourth of July. The route will be between Renovo and North Bend, and one race will take place in the morning and the other in the afternoon. The News says that the morning race will be a free for all but the afternoon event will be for crack riders only. Entries can be made with Charles Weeks at a cost of fifty cents. There will be several handsome prizes given to the winners of the races, one of which will be a solid gold medal.

Should Have Killed Himself First.

PHILADELPHIA, June 18.—Robert B. Soley, aged 32 years, shot and instantly killed his 2-year-old son, Herbert, to-day and then committed suicide by shooting himself. Soley and his wife have not been living together since last February and during this time the child has been living with the parents of his wife, on North Fifth street. It has been feared that Soley might do violence to some one in consequence of the separation, but none thought he would harm the child. He called to-day, as was his custom, and was playing with his son. During the temporary absence of one of his wife's family from the room, he committed the double crime.

Struck by a Train.

TRENTON, N. J., June 18.—Edward Clarkson, aged 25 years, and James Williams, aged 7 years, both colored, were struck by a train on the Pennsylvania railroad and killed this afternoon. They were on a bridge where the railroad crosses the water power. A freight had just passed and the noise prevented them from hearing the approaching passenger train. This accounts for the fact that they were seen to make no effort to get out of the way.

The boy was mangled beyond recognition. His mother was only able to identify him by his clothing.

In Time to Prevent Burial.

SEYMOUR, Ind., April 27.—On Saturday afternoon John Waggoner, aged 85 years, and living near Freetown, was supposed to have died of old age. His physician pronounced him dead, and relatives of the family were telegraphed and arrived on Sunday for the funeral. On Sunday afternoon the body showed signs of life. Yesterday slight breathing was noticeable, and this morning he had sufficiently recovered to talk to the family.

Insane from Mosquito Bite.

NEW YORK, June 17.—The bite of a mosquito was the cause of a man being sent to the insane pavilion at Bellevue Hospital to-day. Carmine Leper, a boot-black, forty-two years old, a few days ago was bitten on the hand by a mosquito. He scratched it until it bled. A few hours after the hand began to swell, and continued to do so until it was almost twice its natural size. The swelling extended to the arm, and there were red streaks under the skin.

For Over Fifty Years.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by all druggists in all parts of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

A Hint for Picnicers.

Grass stains may be removed from light summer frocks by dampening the soiled part in a little alcohol and rubbing well until no trace of the green is left.

Wednesday Marked the Last Day of the Exercises.

INTERESTING ADDRESS BY HASTINGS

Splendid Valedictory Delivered by Ermin Forest Hill, of Hughesville,—John T. Harris, Edward R. Heilig, John E. Shueler and William M. Whitten Were the Class Orators.

TRERE WERE THIRTY FIVE GRADUATES

Wednesday, June 16th, marked the close of the most successful Commencement ever held at the State College. The crowd in attendance on that day was larger than on any preceding day. Special trains carried many from this city and all seemed to stay until the festivities were at an end.

The program for the day opened with the graduation exercises held in the College chapel. Beautiful floral decorations were in profusion, and the scene in that cosey hall was an inviting one indeed. There were thirty-five graduates in all, thirty-four gentlemen and one lady. The exercises began about 10:30 and the first to take their places on the platform were the Governor and his party, who entered by the left side door; then the Faculty entered at the right; and then, escorted by soldiers in uniform and with their class colors at the head, the Class of '97 marched down the aisle and took the places reserved for them on the stage.

The Stopper & Fiske orchestra, of Williamsport, were present and discoursed beautiful music at intervals during the exercises.

The following is the full program rendered:

Invocation—Rev. Chas. T. Aikens.

Oration—"Americanism," John Toner Harris Bellefonte.

Oration—"Our Hero," Edward Reber Heilig, Reading.

Oration—"The Triumph of Democracy," John Edward Schueler, Baltimore, Md.

Oration—'The European Encumbrance,' William Mitchell Whitten, Slippery Rock.

Valedictory Oration—Ermin Forest Hill, Hughesville.

Commencement Address—His Excellency, Daniel H. Hastings, Governor of the Commonwealth.

Conferring Degrees and Awarding Prizes.

The address by Gov. Hasting was excellent in every respect and held the attention of all present throughout its delivery. He told the graduates that heretofore they had been consumers, living off the income of others, but now, if they were to be successful in life and reflect credit on the institution from which they graduated, they must join the great class of producers, and by unceasing industry and work, they would surely win success.

His talk was a very profitable one and contained some good, sound advice that cannot help but bring good results if followed out. Those who graduated are as follows:

Wm. C. B. Alexander, Maderia; Homer H. Allen, Erie; Wm. J. Auburn, McKeesport; Thomas Brumgardner, Lancaster; John A. Boyer, Shellville; David P. Conrad, Houtzdale; Albert L. Cromlish, Pittsburg; John M. Dom, Dawson; James A. Dunsmore, Glen Richey; Charles W. ardt, Wellsboro; John T. Harris, Bellefonte; Edward R. Hellig, Reading; Ermin F. Hill, Hughesville; W. Emery Housman, Altoona; Chas. W. Lawrence, Grove City; Luther L. Leisher, Boalsburg; Chas. E. Mason, Altoona; Adams S. McAlister, Covington, Va.; John E. McCullough, Altoona; Frank R. Magee, McGee's Mills; Robt. M. McKinley, Pittsburg; James S. McMichael, Oakdale Station; Jos. W. Miller, jr., Harrisburg; Wm. S. Montgomery, McEwensville; Edward H. Myers, Boalsburg; John E. Schueler, Baltimore; P. Foote Sellers, Santa Fe, N. M.; J. Walter Simmers, Phoenixville; Wm. H. Teas, Philadelphia, Elizabeth B. Thompson, Lemont; Jos. Thompson, State College; W. Ray Thompson, Lykens; Robt E. Tyson, Pen Argyl; Frank K. Zentmyer, Clearfield.

Among the distinguished visitors in attendance at the exercises besides Governor Hastings, were Gen. Frank Reeder, Congressman Stone, Secretary of Internal Affairs Latta, Attorney General McCormick, Col. W. F. Reeder, Judge Jas. A. Beaver, State Treasurer Haywood, Captain Pratt and others.

Degrees were conferred on fifty students, fifteen of whom had taken special courses. Advanced degrees and degrees not in course were conferred as follows:

Master of science, Milton Speer McDowell, Ridgway, Pa.; civil engineer, Edward Poutany Butts, Holyoke, Mass.; Edward W. Bush, Rome, N. Y.; Paul B. Brenneman, State College; electrical engineering, L. Allen Reed, State College; Rudolph F. Kelker, Harrisburg; chemistry, John H. Yocum, New York.

In the evening the annual farewell assembly to the Senior class was held in the Armory and was attended by 500 guests. The famous Stopper & Fiske orchestra furnished excellent music.

The valedictory address of Mr. Hill, of Hughesville, is given below in full and is very interesting

VALEDICTORY.

In fancy let us go back nearly one hundred years. In Paris we see before us a soldier in the flush and vigor of manhood. Papers and documents lie strewn about him upon the floor, before him are maps and charts which are to guide him by hitherto untrodden paths to the successful accomplishment of a mighty undertaking. Napoleon Bonaparte is about to attempt the conquest of Italy, by which, if successful, he will become first of the conquering heroes of the land, but if unsuccessful banishmsnt and obscurity await his down fall. Already the alluring crown of an emperor glitters and sparkles before his covetous eyes and urges him forward to untold deeds of valor. His determination is firm, his will brooks no restraint, entreaty can not weaken him, nor threat divert him from the line of his undertaking. At his command an army is set in motion whose achievements revolutionize the world. Chasms are spanned, bridges built, rocks trembled and cities razed to the ground. Soon the army has reached the foot hills of a cloud-capped chain of mountains, when with the cunning of a strategist and the dauntless courage of a trueso ler, the "Man of Destiny" proclaimed to his followers, "Beyond the Alps lies Italy." Magic words. Every soldier is imbued with the spirit of his commander. The sword leaps from its scabbard, and defeat and destruction follows in the wake of that mighty army as they scale the craggy peaks and see before them the smiling plains and vine clad hills of Italy.

After a long and arduous campaign of four years the Class of '97 has planted its banner of gold and brown upon the summit of the Alps. Behind her lies a glorious past, resplendent with heroic deeds and happy memories; before her is the bright sunlight of a future filled with the brightest hopes and the grandest aspirations.

In the class room, in the laboratory, in the struggle for physical supremacy, success has attended our every effort. Like children we have chased the gaudy butterfly of pleasure, at times we have strayed into the inviting shades of the forest of indolence, freely we have eaten from the tree of knowledge of good and evil, bravely we have climed the steep hill side of knowledge, and planted our banner of victory upon its summit. To-day we launch our little bark upon the sea of life, it may be to drift on through the years beneath a sky of cloudless blue, or per chance, to be driven by the tempest until almost wrecked upon the rocks of adversity. Human life can not be free from misfortune and sorrow; disappointmene and adversity will be the lot even of the truest soul, but if we meet each crisis bravely, these things will be but a few clouds floating across the disk of the sky, obscuring for a time the brightness of the sunlight, but never mantleing it in impenetrable darkness. They will be but as the rainstorm that washes away the dust from the petals of the flower, causing the blossoms that grow from obedient love to bloom with greater beauty and send forth richer fragrance.

There is a magnificent old myth,—the story of Orpheus the son of Apollo a musician among musicians, when he touched his lyre the rocks and trees moved with sympathetic pleasure, and wild beasts, tamed and charmed, gathered round him with every sign of delight. He married a beautiful nymph, but she died from the bite of a serpent, and was carried down into the infernal regions. Orpheus was disconsolate at her loss and determined to rescue her. Armed only with his lyre, he entered the realm of Hades and sought his bride. He played and sang so sweetly that the stony heart of Pluto melted. Tantalus forgot the thirst that tormented him. The wheel upon which Ixion had revolved a thousand years stopped and gave its victim a blessed rest. The devils all were charmed into penitence and the tortured wept for joy. It was finally agreed that his bride should follow her husband sent from the world of darkness on condition that he should not look back to see if she were coming. Orpheus started for the world of Light, playing as he went, and all that region of darkness was transported with the music. But just as he was nearing the threshold he turned to see if his bride were coming, and both were hurled down again to despair. So for us. May the music of a high and honorable career be our power of conquest in all the years to come. In every discouragement and in every sorrow may we put our trust in the divine melody of a conscience whose every string resounds to the touch of truth and righteoueness. May brave the infernal regions themselves with no other defense than the charm of a souls bright integrity; and thus may we march onward toward the world of light, playing our sweetest music but not look back.

Every struggle has its combatant, and every well directed effort its ultimate success. We have reached our first attempted goal and, looking back with satisfaction upon the interest and encouragement we have received from friends and companions, we feel that to these an expression of our thanks is due before we say the parting word.

Citizens of State College—It is with a sense of regret that the Class of 97 bids you adieu. We have shared of your generous hospitality during the four long years we have been in your midst, and shall ever cherish the memory of happy days spent among you. Hoping that you may manifest the same interest in our future success that you have in our past, and thanking you for the many favors extended us. We bid you farewell.

Undergraduates—The Class of 97 leaves to-day the school-room and their places will be filled by you. Into your care we commit the future of our Alma Mater, filled as it is, with the brightest hopes and the grandest possibilities. Let the success of our Alma Mater be your motto. Bu remember that kingdoms may pass away like the dews of the morning, empires may fall and the memory of their existence be buried in the tomb of oblivion, the sculptured marble may return to the kindred dust from whence it came, but the deeds of the good and the true will survive the destruction of time and sparkle as gems in the diadem of immortality. And now, wishing you every triumph in the future and bidding you God speed in your labors, we bid you farewell Honored President and Professors:—Yours has been the weary labor, ours the rich reward. You have placed at our disposal every means necessary to the successful accomplishment of our several courses of study. The Class of '97 thanks you for the noble effort you have made in their behalf. Your labor has enabled us to see the consummation of our highest hopes and our ambitions, and with a grateful remembrance and acknowledgement of your kind services we bid you farewell.

Classmates:—Together we have reached the goal at which we aimed, and the sacred ties formed will cluster round our thoughts in hallowed memories. May every link in the chain of friendship grow brighter as the years roll on, and, when we reach the summit of our hopes may we look back upon a life well spent and honors nobly won. And now as we slip forward to take our places and to stand or fall upon the worlds broad field of battle, may the memory of happy days spent together serve as an inspiration to yet higher thoughts and nobler deeds, and finally hoping that the tie which has so long held us together may not be loosened, and that the future of '97 may be as bright as her past has been glorious, I bid you farewell.

Collector's Appointments.

In order to accommodate applicants, and save them possible expense and trouble, Deputy Revenue Collector J. F. Brosius will specially attend at the following places to receive taxes and issue stamps:

Bellefonte, Garman House, Tuesday, June 22, from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.; Philipsburg, Passmore House, Wednesday, June 23, from 9. a m. to 4 p. m.; Renovo, Joe Steel's hotel, Thursday, June 24, from 9 a. m to 3 p. m.; Lewisburg, Barker House, Friday, June 25, from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.; Mifflinburg, Young's hotel, Saturday, June 26, from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.; Lock Haven, Deputy Collector's office, June 28 and 29, from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

—Of Sparks, show, which is billed to exhibit in Bellefonte on the afternoon and evening of June 24th, the Cumberland, Md. daily Courier says: "Sparks' circus gave two performances here yesterday to big crowds. The trapeze performers, tumblers, etc., are of high order. The trained horses gave a good illustration of what animals can be brought to do. The clowns, too, were exceptionally good and furnished lots of fun. The baloon ascension and parachute leap by a colored man was an attractive feature and a successful event. All through the aggregation is one of high order." Admission only 10 and 25 cents.

Poisonous Ivy in Cemeteries.

In a recent case in the supreme court in Brooklyn a lot owner recovered $3,500 damages against the Cypress Hill Cemetery association for injuries received by being poisoned by ivy growing wild in the cemetery. Justice Dickey, in charging the jury, said that every year thousands of people visited the cemetery, and that it was the duty of the officials to remove the poisonous vines.

CORNELLY GETS HIS HEARING.

Bound Over to Court—His Bail Fixed at $6,000.

James Cornelly was given a hearing before Judge John G. Love on June 17, on a writ of habeas corpus. W. Fred Reynolds is the prosecutor. District Attorney Singer was assisted by W. F. Reeder, Esq., and Cornelly's interests were looked after by ex-Judge Furst and Hugh S. Taylor, Esq.

The charges against Cornelly are, setting fire to the Armory, Court House and Electric Light Plant. The following witnesses were examined: F. C. Williams, Joseph Lose, Thomas Faxon, Mrs. Alfred Chandler, Miss Mary Butts, Jennie Harper, Jerome Harper, Daniel Cowher, W. Fred Reynolds and A. W. Gillispee. The last named was the most important witness of all. He is a detective, and under the name of Frank Steward has been working on this case since sometime in April. He was arrested a short time ago as a bluff on the charge of being a suspicious character and lodged in jail. In his testimony he gave his residence as Rochester, and said, "I was in town on the 20th of May watching Cornelly's house on the corner of Spring and Lamb streets. Saw him come out of his house about 2 o'clock and go down towards the Electric Light house. He sat down on the pavement about five minutes; then he got up and went to the side of the Armory and disappeared. I heard a sound of breaking glass; then saw a flash of light. Then I saw Cornelly come out and go back into his house. I ran down the street saw the armory was afire, went to the electric light station gave the alarm, then ran back to the armory but the fire was out then. I was arrested as a suspicious character but was discharged yesterday.

On the strength of this evidence, Cornelly was held for trial until the August term of court. His bail was fixed at $6,000.00 but there being no one willing to furnish it he was sent back to jail.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Thieves Returned Stamps.

One hundred and seventy-five dollars' worth of periodical stamps stolen from the post office at Milton, last Friday morning were returned by mail Monday in a merchandise package. In addition, two certificates of stock on the Milton Trust and Safe Deposit company, worth $30 each, were returned by mail from Philadelphia, on Saturday morning, making a total return of $235. Post-master Gauger loses about $80—$20 in cash and $60 in postage stamps. The United States government safe, worth $491, is a wreck, and can never be used again.

Engineer Sellers Killed.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 15.—Late last night, Freight Engineer Elmer E. Sellers, of the Philadelphia Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, was instantly killed in the yards by the Mail Express. He had been to the yardmaster's office to secure leave of absence that he might leave for Philadelphia on the midnight train and was on his way to the station when struck

Sellers was a cousin of Sheriff Sellers He was about to be married, and was on his way to Philadelphia to see his sweetheart when killed.

—While Mr. Geo. Hazel and Foster Williams were unloading goods from Josephs delivery wagon, the horse was scared and Mr. Williams was thrown out and badly bruised up.

—An exciting race was run Wednesday evening at the old black barn race track between Mr. Mart. Garmans' fine bay horse and Mr. Larimers pacer, "Nellie Bailey". The race was won by the latter. Deacon Spigelmyer was present and says he never witnessed a race he enjoyed so well as that one.

Grand Army for Cuba.

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio, June 17.—The Ohio G. A. R. encampment at this place adopted the following resolutions amid the wildest enthusiasm:

Resolved, That as members of the Grand Army of the Republic, who fought to maintain unimpaired, free institutions and civil liberty, and as descendants of those who threw off the sovereignty of Great Britain in 1776, we are unalterably committed to the principle that no foreign power can have the right to govern an American people without the consent of the governed; we, therefore, sympathize with and most heartily approve of the efforts of patriotic Cubans to secure for themselves and their children the right of self government, a right inherited in all American countries.

Resolved, That we condemn Spain for making war upon women and children and noncombatants contrary to the rules of civilized warfare.

Resolved, That in order to voice the sentiments of the people of the United States, our government ought to recognize the independence of the republic of Cuba and to permit Americans to aid the cause of liberty in Cuba as the French aided our ancestors in their revolution; that treaties, if any exist, which retard the progress of liberty and civilization, ought to be set aside, and at least that Cubans should have equal rights with the Spaniards in our ports and markets, and our war vessels should not act as patrols, thereby aiding Spain against Cuba.

The Argument Ended.

The argument in the Philipsburg water company injunction case was concluded Thursday, at court, and it now only remains for the judge's ruling to decide whether the new company will be permitted to go ahead.

It is a case in equity and is of more than usual interest. The plaintiff company has been supplying the citizens of Philipsburg with water since sometime in the sixties from Cold Stream, having their dam located near the borough of Philipsburg. Sometime last year, 1896, the defendant company was organized and chartered and proposes to take water from the same source, about four miles up the stream from where the plaintiffs' dam is located. The plaintiff company resists this, and is seeking to have the defendant company enjoined from taking water from this stream, alleging that it would be injurious to their plant by reducing their supply of water and in dry seasons, make it difficult for them to supply their patrons. It is the opinion here that the court will rule in favor of the defendants.

A Paterson Murder Mystery.

PATERSON, N. J., June 17.—Leo S. Schriefers, a silk weaver, 38 years old, died here last night from injuries supposed to have been recieved at the hands of John Peters, also a silk weaver, with whom he boarded. Peters has fled. Schriefers was found in an unconscious condition in his room yesterday morning. He had evidently been struck on the head at least half a dozen times with a heavy club, and his skull was fractured. It is stated that Peters quarreled with his boarder, whom he accused of inducing Mrs. Peters to leave her husband.

Blow Them Out

The most effective way of destroying worm nests in fruit trees is to blow them out with a shot gun. Load the gun with a small charge of powder and light wadding, hold within a few feet and discharge the gun. This gives more favorable results than any other way of treating the pests.

Cars Shoved Into the Air.

A wreck occured in the lower Lock Haven yard Tuesday morning under circumstances that were all favorably to an ugly catastrophe, but which happily failed to cause anything more serious than a few broken cars and a delay to traffic.

A west bound freight train was standing on a siding waiting for the passenger train which leaves this city at 7.15 to pass. It was standing on the curve. Another freight train behind came along at a pretty good speed, and as the engineer was rounding the curve he saw the caboose of the train ahead loom up before him. It was too late to stop his train and his engine, No. 2141, bumped against the caboose and shoved the cars together with terrific force. Two or three cars about half way in the standing train shot up into the air as high as the telagraph poles and fell over on the east bound track. Just as they were falling, the east bound passenger train came along and crashed into the dumped over cars. The air brakes were quickly applied and the passenger was stopped. The only damage that the passenger train sustained was the pilot of the locomotive being crushed The trainmen and passengers were shaken up considerably, however.

The workmen in the yard at once began extricating the passenger locomotive, and after it had pulled back, its badly damaged pilot was taken off. The train was backed to a switch and was sent down on another track, leaving this city forty minutes late. Erie mail west was held a short time and was finally permitted to enter the city on one of the other tracks.

In addition to the three or four cars that were piled up and demolished, there were several other cars on the freight that was standing badly stoved in, many of them having their bumpers broked The caboose was thrown off the track and its front end badly cracked. The engine of the rear freight had its pilot bent and its bullnose twisted. After the wreck train arrived the evidences of the wreck were soon removed.—Lock Haven Democrat

Threatened a Woman.

EASTON, June 15.—"I want your money and must have it, and quick, too," were the words said to Mrs. Wm. Gosner, of South Easton, about 10 o'clock last night by a man who followed her into the house from the rear yard, where she had been to get milk for her baby.

As he spoke he thrust a revolver towards the thoroughly frightened woman. Her baby began crying and the man threatened to kill it. This frightened the woman more than ever and she gave up all she had, about $15. The man left and she raised the alarm, but he had succeeded in getting away in the darkness. Her husband is employed on the Lehigh Valley railroad and was away on his train at the time.

To be Hanged July 22.

WILKESBARRE, June 15.—Sheriff Martin visited the jail to-day, where he read the death warrant to Peter Wassil, better known as "Terrible Pete." the convicted murderer of Joseph Kupersavage. The same air of defiance is about the convicted murderer and the same spirit of bravado characterises his manner and speech.

When the sheriff had finished the man's temper broke out, and with loud and quick words, accompanied by wild gesticulation, he protested his innocence, yet he said he was willing to die. Unless something occurs to prevent it, Wassil will pay the penalty of the crime for which he was convicted on Thursday, July 22.

Bold Robbery of a Postoffice.

CAPE MAY, June 15.—A daring robbery took place in broad daylight yesterday at the South Dennis post-office. Mrs. Carll, the postmistress, had just stepped outside the door, having left on the desk $146 in registered money, which was to have been mailed later in the morning. She was shot at by the robber as she left the office, but not hurt. The man escaped with the money. Constable Grady summoned a posse of assistants and as soon as possible started on a search for the robber, but he has not yet been captured.

Terrible Pains

In the Stomach—Dreadful Headaches—Face and Neck Covered With Boils—Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla—Skin is Now Clear.

"I was covered with boils all over my face and neck. I had dreadful headaches and pains in my stomach. I took medicines, but was not much benefited, and I procured six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla. After taking the first bottle I could see an improvement. When I had taken a few more bottles the boils had all gone, my skin was clear, my appetite returned, and my health was entirely restored. I am thankful I ever found such a blood purifier as Hood's Sarsaparilla. I paid out a good deal of money for useless medicines before taking Hood's Sarsaparilla." W. F. BECKWITH, Hurlock, Maryland.

THE wings of the Democracy are not "flapping together" very much these days.

THE prospects are still bright for President McKinley's realization of his ambition to attach his signature to the new tariff bill on the Fourth of July.

THE Democratic "leaders" are very blue over the developments in the Senate. A large number of the party have departed from the free trade faith and voted for protection, while the party strife which they expected to see on the Republican side of the chamber has absolutely failed to materialize.

THE Cuban question is the foremost subject in the mind of the President now and there is every reason to believe that the plan which he is developing will not only meet the approval of the American public but be of great value in bringing about an adjustment of the troubles which have so long continued in that unhappy island.

IN MCCLURE'S MAGAZINE for July, Hamlin Garland will conclude his series of papers on the personal side of Grant's early life, with a paper showing Grant as he actually appeared in the full heat and burden of one of his greatest campaigns—the investment and capture of Vicksburg. Like the previous papers, this one will embody recollections of Grant by his close personal associates.

SENATORS JONES, Vest and Mills are good ones to array the Republican party because of a slight rise in Sugar Trust stocks incidental with the adoption of the sugar schedule. It was these very men who framed the schedules of the Wilson law and sugar stock advanced 55 per cent. in value while they were doing it, whereas these stocks have increased 6 per cent. since the Republicans have been considering the present bill.

THE Woolen schedule of the tariff bill is now the only one remaining unacted upon of those over which the House and Senate have seriously disagreed, and it is believed that when it is taken up by the Senate the House rates will be practically restored as regards first and second class wools. The Senate has rejected most of the important changes made by the Finance Committee and has gone back to practically the House rates on all the important features of the bill.

"A perfect type of the highest order of excellence in manufacture."

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. For a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail, mention the REPUBLICAN and send your full post office address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghampton, N. Y. ### American Preachers In London.

London, June 20.—Several of the leading pulpits of the city were occupied today by American preachers, all of whom alluded in the most feeling terms to the Queen's life and character. Bishop Coxe preached at the Windsor Parish Church, and Bishop Whipple at All Saints, Margaret street. Rev W. H. Milburn, chaplain of the United State Senate, preached at the Queen's Park Congregational Chapel, in the Harrow Road.

Special dispatches from Paris, Berlin, Vienna, St. Petersburg, and nearly every large city in Europe show that Thanksgiving services were held in the local English churches, numerously attended. The newspapers, in many cities, especially Vienna and St. Petersburg, publish long enlogistic articles upon the Victorian reign.

At Constantinople the Sultan sent a number of high Ottoman officials to represent him at the service, and the entire diplomatic corps was present. A guard of English blue jackets was drawn up along the main approach to the chapel.

AN ENTERTAINING MUSICAL.

Given at the Convent of the Immaculate Heart.

A very enjoyable musical entertainment was given at the Convent of the Immaculate Heart, Tuesday afternoon, commencing at 3 o'clock. The performers were all members of the music class conducted by Sister Macuelatta. There were quite a number present and all united in pronouncing the entertainment a success. All who took part acquitted themselves well and showed the benefits of the splendid training they received. Special mention, however, should be made of the singing of little May Brown. She is only eight years old and her work is indeed marvellous. The following is the full program rendered:

Chorus—"Merry Sunbeams," piano, Christinia Curry.

"Shells of Ocean," Misses Maria Walsh, E. Williams and Katie Brown.

Alpine Waltz—Misses Stella Kohlbecker and May Brown.

Union Polka—Miss Maria Walsh.

Centennial March—Misses Mary Judge and G. Krebs.

Golden Ringlet Waltz—Misses Marion Nestor and Katie Conroy.

"Roc'-a-by-baby," Miss May Brown.

National Medley—Miss Mary Brown.

Waltz—Misses Helen Ceader and Mary Woods.

"Mocking Bird," Misses Mary Brown, Mary Judge and C. Curry.

Anvil Chorus—Masters Earl Aikens and Michael Diskin.

"Pearls of Dew."—Miss Mary Judge.

"When the Lights are Low," Mr. Waddell. Piano, Miss Mary Brown.

Tramway Gallop—Misses Pendleton and Jackson.

"Sheperd's Evening Song,"—piano, Misses Mary Brown and Henrietta Pacini; organ, Christinia Curry.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, June 21 1897.

The President has no means of knowing to a certainty that the tariff bill will become a law inside of a month, but he feels so confident that it will that he has promised to attend the unveiling of the tatue of General John A. Logan, in Lake Front Park, Chicago, on July 22nd, with as many members of the Cabinet as can make it convenient to accompany him. In order to provide against unexpected contingencies, President McKinley stipulated that his promise should not be considered binding if the tariff bill were not disposed of in time for him to reach Chicago on the date specified.

Senator Chandler, who made a record as Secretary of the Navy, was asked what he thought of the English statement that the annexation of Hawaii would make it necessary for us to largely increase our Navy. He replied; "I do not agree with the opinion that we must largely increase our Naval force because we are about to annex Hawaii. The future power of the United States will not lie in its Navy. We will be great because we have unlimited and easily convertible resources. If we want a Navy, we can get one. If a war should come in which Italy, for instance, was not concerned, we could buy the whole Italian Navy in 24 hours. There will be no larger Naval appropriations coincident with the ratification of the Hawaiian treaty, but when we want a Navy we can get it."

The ultimate ratification of the treaty for the annexation of Hawaii is regarded as so certain, notwithstanding the talk of the handful of democratic Senators who are opposed to it, that no effort will be made to push it to a vote at this session of Congress. The President is perfectly satisfied to have it go over to the regular session, as he regards the sending of the treaty to the Senate as all that was necessary to notify the world of our intention to annex the island.

Senator Hanna has grown very tired of denying the story originated by some one in the employ of a New York paper that the wages of miners in his employ in Pennsylvania, had been cut to the lowest price ever paid in the Pittsburg district—54 cents a ton. Speaking on the subject, Senator Hanna said: "There has been a reduction of wages, but not those of the men employed by any of the companies in which I am interested. I was asked to join but refused to do so. My men are still receiving 60 cents a ton." Of course it would be expecting entirely too much to ask that this very positive denial should operate to keep the original lie out of democratic papers.

Senator Hanna and several members of the Ohio delegation in the House have gone home to attend the state convention. The story that Senator Foraker remained in Washington because he was opposed to Senator Hanna was, of course, of democratic origin. Senator Foraker when asked about it, said there wasn't the slightest foundation for such a yarn, as he is heartily in favor of Senator Hanna's election, and certain that it will be accomplished. He remained in Washington as the result of an agreement with Senator Hanna, it being thought best that one of them should be constantly in his seat in the Senate while the tariff bill is under consideration.

General Stewart L. Woodford, the new U. S. Minister to Spain, has many admirers among the republicans who attended the National convention, which nominated Hayes and Wheeler. After Hayes was nominated, General Wheeler heard that the Indiana delegation had decided to support him for the Vice Presidency. According to Col. W. R. Holloway, who was there, and who is now in Washington, this is what Gen. Woodford said to his Indiana friends: "No, no, gentlemen; don't think of that, Wm. A. Wheeler is a stronger man in the state of New York than I am, and I beg that you will give him Indiana's thirty votes. What we need and must have to elect Gov. Hayes, is New York's electoral vote. Don't consider me for one moment, but vote for my friend, Wheeler, and assist us to carry the Empire state for the nominees of this convention." The result is history.

While the republicans enjoyed the accusations and counter accusations hurled by democratic Senators against each other, they would have much preferred that the time so wasted had been put in on the tariff bill. Everybody knows how wide apart the democratic Senators are on the tariff and many other things, but the country is impatiently waiting for the tariff bill to become a law.

No Prayers For the Queen.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 22.—Because a deputation from the local Queen Victoria Diamond Jubilee Association called upon Bishops Glennon and Hogan recently, and asked them to order prayers in their churches for Queen Victoria and did not wait upon the dignitaries of the Episcopal Church with a similar request, Rev. P. F. Duffy, of the Episcopal Church of Kansas City, Kans., deeply incensed, resigned from the association.

In his letter of resignation, addressed to British Vice Consul Philip E. Burrough, of this city, he says a flagrant insult has been offered the Protestant Episcopal Church, which, in England, is the church of England, and through that church the affront has been transmitted to the Queen.

As a result local Episcopal churches today did not offer prayers for her majesty.

WEDDING AT HIGH NOON.

Mr. Chas. H. Hoffman, of Ridley Park, and Miss Bertha M. Holmes of Jacksonville, the Happy Couple.

The comfortable home of Mr. and Mrs. John Holmes at Jacksonville, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, Wednesday, June 16th, at high noon. The contracting parties Miss Bertha M. Holmes, a pretty and accomplished young lady, and Mr. Charles Hoffman, a promising young citizen of Ridley Park, Pa.

The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants and presented a beautiful appearance. The parlor was festooned with laurel and fern, in the southeast corner was a bank of roses and other choice flowers.

Promptly at 12 o'clock the bridal party made their appearance to the strains of the beautiful Lohengrin wedding march as played by Miss Alverta J. Padley, of Philadelphia. The ushers were A. M. Longacre and Joseph Hoffman, brother of the groom, both of Philadelphia. The bridesmaids were Miss Eleanor Irvin, of Jacksonville, and Miss Bella Hoffman, of Philadelphia. The maid of honor was Marie Holmes, sister of the bride, and the best man was Mr. Walter J. Richman, of Philadelphia. The words which made this happy couple one, were said by Rev. D. L. Jones, of Bellefonte.

After the ceremony all adjourned to the dining room where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was partaken of. Just before setting down to the table Rev. D. L. Jones, in a very graceful manner presented the bride with a handsome two stone diamond ring, the gift of the groom. The bride was also the recipient of many other choice and valuable presents.

Followed by a shower of rice and old shoes, and the hearty congratulations of all present, the bride and groom left in a carriage for Lock Haven where they took the 5 o'clock train for Buffalo, Rochester, Niagara Falls, Toronto, Canada Boston and New York. After their return they will be tendered a reception at their home at Ridley Park, Pa.

About seventy-five guests were present to witness the affair among the number being the mother and sister of the groom from Philadelphia.

Mr. Hoffman holds a lucrative position with the Pennsylvania Rail road Co., as an accountant and is located in room 378, Broad street station.

Mother and Child.

A mother with babe in her arms is an object sacred in theology, poetry and practical life. In no other item of faith do all men so nearly agree. All respect, if not adore, a mother and babe Nationality, creed, color and conventionality, all give place to affection which every well ballanced mind feels toward the sanctity of honest maternirty. A wife without a baby is to be pitied. A wife with a healthy baby is congratulated by every one. Catarrh of the pelvic organs is the most common cause of sterility.

Mrs. L. M. Griffith, Cambridge, Neb. writes: "I am 30 years old and had never had any children; but since beginning your Pe-ru-na I gave birth to a 10-pound baby girl. She is now six months old and weighs 25 pounds. My friends were all surprised. Some would not believe it until they came to see me. My husband says he never saw such a change in any one as there was in me."

Mrs. E. E. Thomas, Alpha, Mo. writes "I had given up all hope of ever getting well. I had tried so much medicine. My neighbors thought I was nearly dead with consumption. I commenced taking Pe-ru-na according to directions. That was two years ago. A year ago last November I gave birth to a 10-pound baby boy, who is well and hearty; and I am doing my own housework. I can never give Pe-ru-na too great praise.

At Hecla Park.

The Methodists of Williamsport picnicked at Hecla park Tuesday. An excursion train of 15 coaches, conveyed the picnicers to the park. The cars were all well filled.

A very large crowd was there, nearly three thousand people. During the day some very interesting races took place, in which our boy Johnie Teats won one, and Mr. Winner, of Lock Haven, the other. While going around the track on his wheel, Mr. Fred Gearhart, of Lock Haven, fell over an embankment straining the muscles in his right limb and breaking his wheel considerably.

—It is estimated that $20,000 in cash is invested in bicycles in Clearfield town alone.

Hurled Through the Air.

Abraham Miller, a milkman of near Hepburnville, met with an accident while crossing the Northern Central tracks near that place Saturday afternoon. While crossing at Bridge No. 3 the rear end of the milk wagon was struck by local freight. The milk cans were scattered about and Mr. Miller was thrown forty feet through the air. He landed against a barbed wire fence where he was picked up by the train's crew in a dazed but conscious condition. He was cut above left ear and was badly bruised, but it is thought that no other injuries were sustained aside from bruises. The horses escaped without injury. The train's crew claim that the necessary signals were given at the crossing and that the accident was caused by the driver's inattention. —Gazette and Bulletin.

Jealous Husband's Crime.

Pittsburg, June 20.—Word has just reached here of a murder and suicide near Harmarville, a small town on the Pittsburg and western railroad about fifteen miles from here.

Frank Karns, an employe of the American glue works, has been jealous of his wife for some time and last week left town supposedly for Chicago. Their six year old child was left with a relative, Alex Hanna, at Springdale, and the wife went to a friend's house to live.

To-day Mrs Karns went to Springdale to visit her child and as she was returning and had reached Harrison, she was met by her husband who at once commenced shooting and before he quit he shot his wife five times and himself once. The bullet Karns put into himself proved fatal in a very short time, and the wife can scarcely survive the night. Karns was 35 years old and his wife 30. No other cause than jealously is known for the crime.

Caught Making Bogus Dimes.

NEW YORK, June 22.—William Wegerle, fifty-three years old, and his wife, Catherine, thirty-nine years old, were caught in the act of making counterfeit dimes in their home in Brooklyn to-day by United States Secret Service officers, who brought them to this city prisoners.

A complete counterfeiting outfit was found in the house, as well as good imitations of dimes to the amount of $10. The couple own the house in which they were arrested. Their twelve-year-old daughter returned from Sunday-school just in time to see her parents taken away prisoners by the detectives.

A Mother's Darling.

Sympathy is best shown when practically applied. Therefore, when your baby is suffering from summer complaint, diarrhœa, or dysentery, show practical sympathy by giving him Dr. John W. Bull's Baby Syrup. Mrs. R. H. Chappell, Homeville, Va., is very emphatic in her commendation of this wonderful remedy. She says: "I think there is no medicine like Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup for babies. I would as soon think of raising them without bread to eat, as to dispense with Bull's Baby Syrup for them." This efficacious remedy is indispensable to mothers; it is sold by all dealers for only 25 cents a bottle. Take no other preparation, but buy Dr. John W. Bull's Baby Syrup; nothing else can take its place.

What the House Did Yesterday.

HARRISBURG, June 18.—The house held atwenty-nine minute session this morning and then adjourned until 8.30 Monday evening. There was no quorum Speaker Boyer and other members seemed anxious to avoid a call of the house. The calendar was cleared of first reading bills and the pawn brokers' bill was sent back to the committee, Mr. McWhinney, of Allegheny, secured a special order for a bill requiring the weighing of bituminous coal before screening. It will be read the second time Tuesday morning, and taken up Wednesday for third reading and final passage.

Mr. Wilson, of Lycoming, offered a resolution recalling from the senate the Simon electric light bill, which passed the house Wednesday. The resolution was ruled out on an objection from Mr. Keyser, of Philadelphia.

A bill was introduced by Mr. Mansfield, of Beaver, granted a pension of $99 a year to Charles J. Taylor, private, company B, Tenth regiment, for disability incurred while in the service of the state at the Homestead riots in 1891.

A resolution was offered by Mr. Seyfert, of Lancsater, and ruled out on an objection that the superintendent of public instruction be requested to furnish to the house the number and names of the different school districts in which a less sum of money is raised and appropriated by local taxation for school purposes than they received by the state last year and also the amount so apportioned in each case. Adjourned.

A LOCAL SMITHY.

Lays Aside His Hammer and Tongs to Discuss what to Him was a New Discovery,

If this discovery was unearthed by a blacksmith in Boston, Buffalo or Bradford we would not ask our readers to believe it, but when the mechanic is in Bellefonte there is no getting from the truth. You can find Mr. Chas. Shearer at No. 23 Thomas street where, between the rings of his anvil, he will corroborate personally what is here made public. Mr. Shearer says: 'The trouble in my back started, from a strain I recieved while shoeing a horse that was rather hard to handle. I have taken a number of kidney remedies and I have been treated by a number o physicians who told me my kidneys were out of gear, but they could do nothing for me. Besides being troubled with severe backaches the urine was very dark and I had severe headaches. I know they orginated from my kidneys, for since I used Doan's Kidneys Pills they have stopped. I saw a number of accounts of remarkable cures made by the old Quaker remedy and although I did not know any of the people I concluded to try them as ort of a venture. I sent to the Pharmacy of F. Potts, Green for a box and commenced to use them. Colds used to effect me I have contracted one since I ceased useing hem and notice no inconvenience. I have also done a great deal of horse shoeing and other heavy work since, but my back has stood the test all right. I can heartly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

CORRESPONDENCE

Boalsburg Briefs.

Miss Edna Kreamer, of Altoona, expects to spend the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Israel Condo.

Last week was a very busy week for our energetic hack driver, Samuel Kaup. Besides making his usual trips to Oak Hall Station, he accommodated many people by taking them to the Commencement at the State College.

Last Thursday Messrs. George Stuart, Wm. Woods and Matthew Goheen took the entrance examinations for the Freshman class at the College. We have good reason to believe Boalsburg will have three students there next year.

Miss Nellie Woods is home, having graduated in music from Marshal College, Mo.

Quite a number of our people attended the picnic in honor of the reunion of the students of Pine Grove Academy, including 'Pickett' and 'Punkin,' of whom it is alleged had girls that neither they nor anybody else knew.

It was quite amusing to hear Sam. Kaup calling for his passengers about 11 o'clock. His well known peculiar voice went forth as Berzilla!!! Ber-zil-la!!! Tom on; Tom on.

Our celebrated fisherman, Mr. Dinges, with Mr. Hosterman, spent Wednesday and Thursday fishing in the mountain streams around Paddy mountain. Their catch contained many nice large trout and also many eels.

Howard and Vicinity.

LETTER NO 1.

Mr. Cheesman, of Mill Hall, of the firm of the Cheesman Soap Co., was shaking hands with his old friends in this place this week.

Mr. J. B. Wetzel proprietor of the Empire Iron works at this place left on Tuesday evening for Philadelphia where he expects to purchase new machinery. The Works have been running on full a time for the past year and the prospects now are that they will soon run double term.

Mrs. Cordie Bradley of Altoona is at present visiting friends in this city.

The Children's Services was held in the United Evangelical church on Sunday evening last and was attended by almost 500 people.

Mr. Wm. Smith of Main street has had his house re-painted which greatly improves the appearance of it.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Christian church will hold their regular dime social on Friday evening of this week at the residence of Miss Martha Lucas on Walnut street everybody is cordially invited to attend. Ice cream cake & etc., will be served on the lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Kline are visiting friends at Millheim, Woodward and Penn Cave this week.

Our Creamery that is being operated by the Wilson Bros. Seems to be giving satisfaction as we notice that nearly all the farmers for miles around bring their milk to the creamery and yet they cannot supply the demand for the Howard Creamery Butter.

Miss Annie Holter spent Tuesday in Bellefonte at the home of Dr. Hibler

LETTER NO 2.

Miss Harriet Grimm, of Lapoit, one of Prof. Latshaw's assistants in conducting the Summer Normal returned to her home on Tuesday.

Mr. George Leathers, who is working in Clearfield Co., spent Sunday with his parents.

Mr. M. Burns Derr, of Bellefonte, was a guest at the home of Dr. L. R. Hensyl over Sunday.

Mr. Thomas Mahaffey, who had been spending a few days with relatives, departed for his home on Monday.

Miss Nellie Burns is visiting friends in Bellefonte.

Miss Magdalene Callaway, of Bellefonte, who has been visiting Mrs. Comerford, departed for her home on Tuesday.

On last Sunday morning Rev. Wharton preached a sermon to the students of the Howard Summer Normal in the United Evangelical church. The audience was large and attentive. His theme was ,,True ambition." The music was furnished by the choir of the same church, assisted by Mr. M. Burns Derr of Bellefonte, who rendered a very beautiful solo.

The annual Children's Day Services, held in the United Evangelical church under the supervision of Mrs. L. R. Hensyl, were a decided success.

Mrs. McGee and Mrs. Wm. Mahaffey, of McGees Mills. are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. Long.

Miss Bertha Knoll, one of Howard's estimable young ladies left on Monday for McGees Mills and the surrounding community, where she expects to remain three or four weeks among relatives.

Miss Nannie Canan, of Tyrone, has been visiting Miss Maude Schenck.

The Base Ball Boys' festival, which was held here on Saturday evening, was, considering the inclement weather a decided success.

The teachers' examination were held here on Friday.

Mr. H. A. Moore and wife spent Tuesday in Bellefonte.

The basket picnic held on Saturday at the close of the Summer Normal was a pleasant affair. The pupils under the leadership of Prof. Latshaw, their instuctor marched, in a body, from the school house to the woods where a very enjoyable day was spent. There were a large number of pupils present, who brought friends with them that added much to the mirth and merriment of the occasion. The best treat of the day after all had done ample justice to their dinner, was the intellectual feast, which was participated in by six or eight young men of the school and others who recited their favorite selections. After having had their fortunes told by Miss——of Howard. At 4 P M. all started from the picnic grounds some North, some South, some East and some West. but some were sad because no matrimonial line was found in their hand especially poor Fritz, who had no hope at all.

Cured of Spasms by Dr. Miles' Nervine.

THE many cases of spasms, St. Vitus dance and epilepsy that Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine has cured, would alone give this great remedy wide reputation. Mrs. Walter A. Steward, 773 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y., says March 3, 1896: "In 1893, while on a visit to friends our little girl was taken with spasms. We hastened home to our family physician. He did all he could but failed. We called several physicians but the spasms continued, her tongue became partially paralyzed and the doctors said she would never talk again. Night and day we watched the poor little sufferer and tried every remedy we saw advertised for such cases but got no relief. We began giving Dr. Miles' Nervine, and after taking four bottles she was running about as well and happy as ever."

PRAISE FOR THE QUEEN.

A Personal Letter Sent to Britain's Ruler by the President.

IS A GREAT AND GOOD FRIEND

A Deserved Tribute Paid to the Queen and Her Subjects, the Latter Being the First Removed.

THE EPISTLE WAS MOST HAPPY

WASHINGTON, June 21.—President McKinley has sent the following personal letter to Queen Victoria, which was delivered to her by Mr. Whitelaw Reid, special envoy: "To Her Majesty, Victoria, queen of Great Britain and Ireland, and empress of India:

Great and Good Friend—In the name and on behalf of the people of the United States I present their sincere felicitations upon the sixtieth anniversary of your majesty's accession to the throne of Great Britain.

I express the sentiments of my fellow citizens in wishing for your people the prolongation of a reign illustrious and marked by advance in science, arts and popular well-being. On behalf of my countrymen I wish particularly to recognize your friendship for the United States and your love of peace exemplified upon important occasions.

It is pleasing to acknowledge the debt of gratitude and respect due to your personal virtues. May your life be prolonged and peace, honor and prosperity bless the people over whom you have been called to rule. May liberty flourish throughout your empire, under just and equal laws and our government continue strong in the affections of all who live under it.

And I pray God to have your majesty in his holy keeping.

Done at Washington, this twenty-eighth day of May, A. D., 1897.

Your good friend,
WILLIAM MC INLEY

Childrens Day at Howard.

Children's Day was observed in the Evangelical church at Howard, Sunday, June 20th. The day was a most pleasant one and the exercises a success throughout. The meeting held in the fore-noon, consisted of an address by Rev. A. P. Wharton. Which was given for the benefit of the Graduates of the Howard Summer Normal. The exercises of the evening were chiefly given by the children of the primary department, under the supervision of Mrs. L. R. Hensyl, who deserves much credit for the work she done and the interest that she maintained among these little folks. So well did these little ones act out their parts that during the entire service the audience paid strict attention, which is a great exception to the general rule. Miss Maude Hopkins kept the room silenced for fifteen minutes by the recitation of a very beautiful piece entitled, "The Martyred Mother," which has won the laurels of many a contest. A goodly number of other very interesting recitations were delivered by the different scholars to whom we owe our congratulations. These recitals were followed with a short address by the pastor on the subject of "Giving to the Missions," after which the collection was taken up. This collection amounted to fourteen dollars, and was contributed to the missionary cause. Suitable music was rendered by the choir under the direction of Wm. Weber of that place. The exercises in the Disciple church on June 6th and the Methodist on June 13th, were also very interesting.

Colorado Mine Worth $5,000,000.

DENVER, Col., June 22.—Judge Allen has decided to appoint a receiver for the Bassick mine, but the receiver has not yet been named Under a recent decision of the Federal courts, E. C. Bassick is in possession of the property.

The present action was brought by minority stockholders in the Bassick Company, asking that the court determine the rights of the company as against Bassick and Dennie Ryan. It is alleged that these two entered into a conspiracy to defraud the company out of the property.

The Bassick mine is located in Custer County. Its value is stated in the complaints filed in this case to be two millions, but well-informed mining men place the value at $5,000,000. It has paid hundreds of thousands of dollars in dividends.

Cripple Robbed at DuBois.

Saturday night at DuBois Jacob Goodfore, a crippled Polander, while walking along a principal street was stoned, knocked down and relieved of ten dollars and a watch. Another man who was with the robbed man escaped by running. Goodforewas badly injured by the stones.

DEATH OF MRS. HARRY JOHNSON.

Passed Away on Saturday at the Home of Her Parents in This Place.

On Saturday at 6 o'clock the grim reaper death, entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walkey on Logan street, this place, and took from their midst their only daughter Mrs. Sadie J. Johnson, wife of Harry Johnson, of Altoona. Mrs. Johnson has been in delicate health for some time, and several weeks ago she arrived in Bellefonte on a visit to her parents and in search of renewed health and strength. It was hoped by her friends that she would be greatly benefited by the change, but such was not to be the case. Two weeks ago Wednesday, she was taken with rheumatism of the head, and since last Monday has been unconscious. Her end came very peacefully this morning surrounded by her husband, parents and other loved ones.

Deceased was born on the 28th of May 1869 and was 28 years and 22 days old. She was married Sept. 24th 1891 to Mr. Harry Johnson, son of John T. Johnson, and they have resided ever since in Altoona. She leaves no children.

The funeral will take place on Monday afternoon from the Reformed church at 2:30 o'clock. The services will be conducted by Revs. Miles O. Noll, of Carlisle, Moyer of Altoona and Dr. Gearhart of this place. Interment in Union cemetery.

Mrs. Johnson was a sincere christian lady of kindly disposition, loved and respected by all who knew her. She was a daughter of Henry and Rebecca Walkey and a sister of Harry Walkey Jr. of this place. The bereaved husband, parents and brother have the deepest sympathy of the public in this their hour of sad affliction.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of Mrs. Harry Johnson took place Monday afternoon at 2:30 oclock from the Reformed church on Linn street. The large edifice was crowded with sorrowing friends and relatives and the floral tributes were extremely beautiful. The casket was literally covered with roses, carnations and other lovely flowers.

The services were very solemn and affecting and were conducted by Rev Moyer, of Altoona, Rev. assisted by Rev. Eisenberg of Centre Hall.

The pall-bearers were Lewis Wetzel, Sidney Krumrine, J. Will Conley, Harry Jenkins, Thomas Moore and William Runkle.

Those who were in attendance at the funeral from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Shellenberger and daughter Rachel, Mrs. Boyer and son Frank, Mr. Port Lewis, Miss Jessie Stifler and Rev. Dr. Moyer, all of Altoona. Mr. James Markle, of Pitcairn, and Miss Anna Grove of Johnstown.

Monthly Pains cured by Dr. Miles' Pain Pills.

On Saturday evening, leaving at 5:30 from corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Tenth street, the Tyrone Cycle club will make the run to Penn's Cave, and all wheelmen are invited to join them, a special invitation being extended to Altoona cyclers. The party will ride to Bellefonte Saturday evening, remain there over night, proceed to Penn's cave next morning, and return by way of Centre Hall, Pine Grove and Warriorsmark on Sunday afternoon.—Tyrone Herald.

HALE AND HEARTY.

Even Though She is Over 100 Years Old.

Another lady in this state, who has passed the 100 year milestone, has been brought into notoriety. Her name is Mrs. Mary Ann Cassidy, her place of residence Coalport, Clearfield county, and her age 105 years. She is also hale and hearty. She was the mother of eighteen children, thirteen boys and five girls. Of this number nine are living and nine are dead. She gave birth to four pairs of twins. Mrs. Cassidy was born in Ireland in 1792, emigrating with her husband and family to this country in 1845.

From their landing in New York they went to Philadelphia, thence to Broad Top, Johnstown, Gallitzin, Houtzdale, and finally located in Coalport, where she has lived ever since. She lived in Johnstown 42 years ago, when the canal was first operated there. Her husband was killed at Broad Top a few years after coming to America, by being caught in a coal shaft when returning from work. Mrs. Cassidy was never known to be sick and never had a physician. She never smoked, never used liquor as a beverage nor went to a dance in her life.

For the past 24 years she has had her "second sight," and now does not need to wear glasses. Though she is as toothless as the day she was born, she can eat heartily of the common fare of the family three times a day. She weighed 220 pounds for some time after coming to this country, but during the past 15 years she has dropped to about 200. About a year ago she kissed one of her twin boys good-bye as he lay in his coffin, having died at the age of 65 years. Mrs. Cassidy is a member of the Catholic church, a remarkably well preserved woman, being able to go about alone, and promises to live yet a number of years.

WORTH WHILE.

It is easy enough to be pleasant
When life flows along like a song;
But the man worth while is the one who will smile
When everything goes dead wrong.
For the test of the heart is trouble,
And it always comes with the years,
And the smile that is worth the praise of earth
Is the smile that comes through tears.

It is easy enough to be prudent
When nothing tempts you to stray;
When without or within no voice of sin
Is luring your soul away.
But it's only a negative virtue
Until it is tried by fire,
And the life that is worth the honor of earth
Is the one that resists desire.

By the cynic, the sad, the fallen,
Who had no strength for the strife,
The world's highway is cumbered to-day;
They make up the item of life.
But the virtue that conquers passion,
And the sorrow that hides in a smile—
It is these that are worth the homage of earth.
For we find them but once in a while.
—Ella Wheeler Wilcox in Congregationalist.

A DISCORD.

BY E. J. W.

The Soprano was late that morning. As she brushed hastily past the Organist glanced up from his instrument to whisper,—

"Better late than never."

She gave him a nod and laughing sidewise glance, and slipped softly into her chair between the short, good-natured Second Soprano and the tall, melancholy Tenor. She herself was neither short nor tall, but quite the happy medium.

A light snow was falling, and a few of the great feathery flakes still clung to her sealskin jacket. The Second Soprano obligingly flicked them off with her handkerchief, in return for which she received a flashing smile of thanks.

The Soprano smiled a great deal. Indeed, she could well afford to, for her teeth were faultless, and her eyes of that rare golden brown color which always reminds one of a sunbeam dancing upon a clear, dark pool of water.

Beautiful eyes, truly, and reflecting in their liquid depths the many and varying moods of an impulsive, generous, intense nature.

When she rose in her place and sent that wonderful voice of hers ringing and thrilling straight into the hearts of the people, they listened in an ecstacy of enjoyment and sudden spiritual uplifting.

For some the radience of actual divinity lay along the dim old aisles and touched the exquisite faces upon the chancel window; the solemn tones of the great organ became the blended sweetness of many harps and voices led by the one soaring, vibrating voice which sang praise and honor and glory to the Most High.

Something of this kind was said to her once. She threw back her dainty head and laughed long and heartily.

"Really, you do me too much honor!" she cried when she could speak. "Far too much honor! Why, I have studied in Paris, Berlin, Rome—I have spent thousands of dollars to get just that quality into my voice which you are pleased to consider so admirable. It is my stock in trade, and I should be foolish indeed did I not use it to the best advantage."

She loved her art with ardent enthusiasm, and pursued it unremittingly. She had been known to spend months upon an aria before she considered herself capable of rendering it in an acceptable manner before the congregation.

She said once, carelessly, that she should never marry—a husband would be an encumbrance. Women of her type rarely married men with interests or attainments similar to their own, and if not there could be but one result from the union—utter wretchedness either for one or both, which was true enough as far as it went.

She had not said this in the hearing of the Organist, yet it came, as such things do, to his ears.

There can be no secrets exchanged or kept in a choir. Every confidence, every bit of gossip, soon becomes common property.

The Organist knew perfectly well that his love for the Soprano afforded delectable food for many a conjecture, which knowledge often made him provokingly absent-minded; or was it the fault of the narrow mirror which hung before him on the organ? That dear, delightful bit of French plate glass! If it was tilted at just the proper angle he could catch a glimpse of a rosy ear nestling in a mass of dark hair, and a white neck gleaming above a brown fur collar, though the vision 'tis true, was often spoiled by the intervening heads of the lower satellites.

Then there was always the hope that she would permit him, as she sometimes did, to walk home with her after service. True, she lived barely a block from the church, and the distance always seemed so short to him, because from delight, fear and longing he was bereft of speech, or if he spoke at all, must only utter merest commonplaces about the weather, or the attendance, or the choir, instead of saying that which was in his heart to say.

On this particular morning he seemed more than ordinarily lost in thought. When he began to play the "Nunc Dimittis" instead of the "Te Deum," the Basso apprised him of his mistake by vigorously poking him in the back with a hymn book. The poor organist colored to the roots of his wavy blonde hair. He hastily changed the music and by the skillful use of a few chords dropped into the required key. But the blunder obviously annoyed him. He was of an extremely nervous temperament.

The Soprano sang a solo that morning—an exquisite, difficult thing which she had taken great pains in preparing. After the first note or two she saw that she had the undivided attention of every listener. An appreciative audience is always inspiring. The Soprano caught the spirit and sang with rare sympathy and power.

But alas for the Organist! Just when the accompaniment was most needed to sustain the harmony his fingers slipped on the keys. Crash! There was a heavy, hideous discord. The beautiful voice hesitated for a moment, then went on smoothly enough, but the effect was spoiled.

When the Soprano resumed her seat all the bright color had left her cheeks, and her eyes had a curious, unmistakable gleam in them which was only there when she was very angry.

After service the Organist lingered timidly, hoping for an opportunity to speak to her and make an humble apology for his carelessness. But none presented itself, and he saw her leave the gallery and pass down the stairs in company with the Basso, whom he cordially detested.

This was the drop too much. He knew she was angry with him; he could have borne that, hoping that time would make all right; but to see her go deliberately off with the Basso, a great, coarse, hulking fellow who openly admired her, and who openly, also, saw a great deal of amusement in his (the Organist's) silent adoration!

Ah, that was worst of all! The poor fellow, his heart bursting with an agony of remorse, jealousy and love, stumbled out into the street, where the snow was still falling softly, pityingly, as it always falls in the streets of a great city.

That evening it was the Organist who entered the choir last of all, looking very pale and miserable. The Soprano watched him out of the corner of her eye while he unrolled his music, placed it on the rack and adjusted the stops of the organ. She was in her gayest mood, and the choir soon warmed under the influence of her merriment. Even the Tenor permitted his melancholy features to become distorted in a smile.

After service the choir leisurely dispersed, laughing and chatting good-naturedly. Only the Organist lingered, and he apparently was engaged in gathering up his music. The Soprano went out with the Second Soprano, of whom she was especially fond, thereby openly snubbing the over-confident Basso.

But at the door she stopped with a sudden exclamation.

"My gloves—I must have dropped them somewhere. I will just run back after them."

She slipped noiselessly up the stairs and into the choir, deserted now save for the Organist, who was leaning against the organ with his face hidden. His very attitude was so suggestive of depression that the Soprano's warm little heart melted at once. She went up to him and touched him softly on the arm.

He started, and turned to see a pale, earnest face and eyes big and bright with welling tears, lifted to his own.

"I came back," she faltered hurriedly. "I want to say I—am sorry I lost my temper this morning. I—I don't want you to feel hurt."

She paused abruptly.

As for the Organist, after the first dazed look of bewilderment had passed from his face he grew positively radiant. He was not so stupid that he could not define something in her face and manner that had never been there before. All her saucy audacity was gone, and she was just a tender, penitent woman—yes, and a loving one as well.

"You came back!" he said, when at last he found words and a voice with which to utter them. "Then you do really care something about me, after all!"

"Something!" she echoed with a smile and vivid blush.

His arm stole around her.

"A great deal?" he whispered.

"A very great deal!" the Soprano answered, hiding her happy face on his shoulder.

"Laugh and Grow Fat."

It is said that every hearty laugh in which a man or woman indulges tends to prolong life, as it makes the blood move more rapidly and gives a new and different stimulus to all the organs of the body from what is in force at other times. Therefore, perhaps, the saying "Laugh and grow fat" is not an exaggerated one, but has a foundation in fact. No truer words were ever uttered than those which state so clearly: "Laugh, and the world laughs with you; weep, and you weep alone." The jolly, wholesome, happy-hearted people are those who have most friends and see the best that life holds out to them.—Churchman.

What He Wore.

Son—"I simply can't get this lesson."

Father—"Don't give it up, Thomas. Remember that General Grant's great successes were largely due to the fact that he never knew when he was licked."

Son—"Then he must have worn a board in the seat of his trousers, same as Billy Brown does."—Leslie's Weekly.

Presence of Mind.

Peter O'Shaughnessy, a prospector of this city, while at work in Sheep Gulch started a landslide at an elevation of 4,000 feet. With rare presence of mind O'Shaughnessy sat astride of his shovel and, with the exception of a few bruises, rode safely to the bottom.—Cor. Salt Lake Tribune.

Equals of Professional Strong Men.

Professional strong men have equals in various respects in private life. It is asserted of Alonzo Lowe of Greenfield, Indiana, that he has lifted one of his horses clear of the ground and that he can shoulder alone and carry a barrel of sugar.

THE TREATY SENT IN

So Also is President McKinley's Message Regarding the Same.

ALL REFERS TO HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

Senate Will Look the Papers Over and Then the Members Will Take a Vote on the Same Proposition.

VERY LIKELY TO GO THROUGH

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The treaty for the anexation of the Hawaiian islands reached the senate chamber at 5 o'clock to-day. The senate at once went into executive session and as soon as the doors were closed the message of President McKinley accompanying the treaty and the treaty itself were read to the senate. They were attentively listened to. In one part of the chamber there was a group of senators who will bitterly oppose the ratificatian of the treaty. Among them were Senators Gray, Mills, Pasco, White, Caffery, Pettigrew and McEnery. As soon as the reading of the documents was completed, Senator Davis, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, moved that the message and treaty be made public. Senator Gray objected to a vote on the motion and under the rules single objection carried the motion over until tomorrow. Senator Davis gave notice that at the next executive session he would press the motion for publication as all the essential facts and an almost verbatim copy of the treaty had been published in the press of the country.

There was some discussion as to when the treaty might be considered, and Senator White asked if it was the intention to push it at this session, and upon the reply being made that it was possible the California senator said: "I desire to announce that I am prepare to stay here all summer in order to prevent the ratification of the treaty which I consider a very bad proposition."

"I'll join you," said Senator Pettigrew, of South Dakota.

The message of the president was not a long document. It dealt with historical facts concerning the islands and showed that the United States and Hawaii yearly grew more closely bound to each other. This was not realy annexation, he said, but a continuation of existing relations with closer bonds between the people closely related by blood and kindred. Since 1820, said the president, the predominence of the United States had been known. The sending of the first envoy there brought the islands in close relations with the United States and those relations had grown more firm by succeeding events. At the same time the Tripartite agreement was made for the goverment of Samoa, he said, Great Britain and Germany wanted to include Hawaii in the group over which a protectorate was established, but the suggestion was rejected by the United States because this government held that there already existed relations between Hawaii and the United States which placed the islands under the especial care of this country and that this country could not allow any other country to interfere in the affairs of Hawaii. The annexation of the islands, said the president, and making them a part of the United States was in accordance with the established policy of this country.

State Wins From W. U. of P.

One of the most hotly contested games of ball played on Beaver Field this season was that which took place Wednesday afternoon, June 16th, between the College nine and the boys from the Western University of Pennsylvania. Neither side scored a run until the 5th inning when the State made four runs on a home run by Bechtel. The W. U. P. boys in their half of the 8th inning succeeded in tieing the score when the excitement became intense, but in the State half they knocked pitcher Boyd out of the box and scored 5 runs, thus winning a most interesting game. The following is the score in full:

Heat Great in Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 15.—This was the hottest day of the year, the mercury reaching 94 degrees at 3 o'clock this afternoon. At 6 o'clock this evening 12 prostrations had been reported to the police department.

It is expected this number will be largely increased as the early evening was intensely hot and sultry.

A hot wind from the southwest has been blowing all day and from present indications it will continue to-morrow. So far this June has proved the hottest and coldest June since the weather bureau began recording. Last year the hottest June day was 73.

This was the third day of the hot spell and the thermometer recorded 90 on Sunday, and 91 yesterday. The nights afforded little relief. None of the prostrations of to day were fatal, but some of the cases are critical.

Wouldn't Take The Hazing.

West Point, N. Y., June 15.—Bertram Sanders and a youth from Arkansas whose name could not be learned returned to their homes to-day and declined to take further part in the examination for cadetship on the ground that they had been severely hazed. They entered yesterday with a class of ninty-six to undergo the examination for admission to the United States Military Academy. This morning they resigned their nominations and immediately left West Point. They alleged that Cadets Scott, Maginnis and Mesbit had hazed them, that they were unwilling to submit to it, and would no longer put themselves in the way of such experiences. Sanders comes from the VIth Indiana District.

Convention of School Boards.

Among the features of the meeting of the National Educational Association to be held next month will be the second national convention of school boards, which will open at Milwaukee, Wis, July 8th, and continue for two days. Prominent members of the Boards of Education of New York, Chicago, Cleveland, Louisville, St. Louis, Columbus, etc., will treat the leading questions in practical school government, administration, etc.

Running to Save Life, She Died.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., June 16.—Yesterday afternoon a young son of Martin Colby, who lives along the canal, just outside Celeron Park, fell into the water. Mrs. Edith Martin saw the accident and hastened to the rescue, but before she reached the spot she fell dead. The water where the child fell in was shallow and he was saved.

To the Delicate and Malarious.

The most incredulous are convinced o the virtues of Aunt Rachael's Malaria Peruvian Bark Bitters upon a trial of them. Their base is Speer's Port Wine, with herbs and roots so favorably known to the Medical Profession and the community at large as the best cure for Malaria. They are all that can be desired by the most feeble victims of Malaria. Physicians prescribe them.

—Though a hard man to interview, President McKinley has always accorded the newspaper men fair and friendly treatment. He gave another proof of this fact when, down at Ashville, N. C., he refused to enter "Biltmore," the Vanderbilt palace, if the newspaper men were barred out.

Closing Proceedings of W. F. M. Society.

First on Wednesday's program was the Devotional exercises, led by Miss Debbie Read after which the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The following list of delegates answered to the roll call; Mrs. J. H. Law, of Hollidaysburg; Miss Margaret Calvert, of Altoona; Misses. Lenore and Fannie Riddle, of Tyrone; Miss McCord, of Lewistown; Mrs. G. W. Weaver and J. B. Walker, of Clearfield; Misses. Debbie Read and Sallie Kittelberger, of Curwinsville; Misses. Sophia Ayers and Annie Gill of Philipsburg; Mrs. Hannah Leggette and Mrs. Sarah Mobley, of Beech Creek. The reports of these delegates were very satisfactory, and the weak points of each society was made clear by Miss McCord, so that they may be able to still improve their work in the future.

AFTERNOON SESSION

This meeting was led by Miss Mary Owen, and resulted in being a most interesting one throughout. Miss Fannie Riddle, of Tyrone, gave a short address on, "The best method of securing a real thank offering." Miss Riddle suggested many important points on this subject. Miss McCord, of Lewistown, then took the floor and in a very eloquent way spoke of, "The origin of Thank Offering," stating that the "Thank Offering" was first taken in consideration when the society had it's anniversary, three years ago and has been made an annual affair since that time. The money that is collected by this offering, is contributed to the Sarah L. Kean Boarding School, China. This was then followed by two short addresses given by Miss Bessie Meek on, "Missionary work in Texas" and "My trip to Mexico". The latter address was to be given by Mrs. P. Gray Meek, but she not being able to attend, Miss Bessie officiated. The meeting was then adjourned.

New Chairs at Princeton.

PRINCETON, N. J., June 18.—President Patton, of Princeton University, announced yesterday a number of changes in the college corps of instructors. Prof. Willard Humphrey is promoted from assistant to the full professorship held by Prof. Mark Baldwin, who is changed from Stuart professorship of experimental psychology to Stuart professor of psychology.

Two new chairs were created, one in history and one in French. Prof. Arnold Guyot Cameron, recently of Yale, was elected professor of French language and literature. Professor Andrew Campbell Armstrong, of Wesleyan University, was elected to the new chair in the department of history.

Another Paris Bomb Explosion.

PARIS, June 17.—A bomb was exploded yesterday afternoon in front of the Strasburg statue, on the Place de Laconcorde. The explosion did some injury to the balistrade of the statue and the immediate locality was strewn with scrap iron as far as the walk of the Tuileries. A sharp shower was falling at the time, and no one was about. The infernal machine appears to have been some sort of iron pot, parts of which were picked up by the police at least a hundred yards from the statue. The police have found blood spots on the ground near the statue, and have knowledge of two men who were seen fleeing from the vicinity of the statue immediately after the explosion.

Band Master Guilty.

WASHINGTON, D. C. June 15.—The courtmartial recently tried Prof. Faneulli, leader of the Marine band, on charges growing out of his refusal to play certain marches ordered to be played on decoration day by Lieut. Draper of the marine corps, has found him guilty of disobedience of orders and has recommended his dismissal from the service. Col. Herwood, commandant of the corps, has approved the recommendation and it has been forwarded to the navy department.

Endorsement of Speer's Wine by the Faculty of N. Y.

The Committee of Physicians requested to examine into the merits of the wines of Alfred Speer, report these wines strictly pure, acceptable inflavor, palatable anb rich body. Dr. Cyrus Edison, of New York Board of Health, says there is no better wine in the world.

An Old Slot Machine.

There is now in the British museum a nickel in-the-slot machine which dates from a period long before the birth of Christ. It is a combination of jug and slot machine used for the dispensation of holy water. A coin of the value of 5 drachmas dropped into the slot opened a valve which allowed a few drops of the liquid to escape.

Ruby Lips.

And a clear complexion, the pride of woman—Have you lost these charms through Tropid Liver, Constipation, Billiousness or Nervousness? Dr. Agnew's Liver Pills will restore them to you—40 Little "Rubies" in a vial—10 cents.

Act like a charm. Never gripe. Sold by, J. N. & S. Krumrine.

Bryan and Tammany.

Following his defeat last fall Bryan was strong in denouncing all democrats who did not vote for him as traitors to Democracy, and as prodigals who should be required to feed among the husks and become thoroughly repentant before being permitted to get back to the Democratic table. Since then, until recently, he has been urging Democrats everywhere to make a straight-out fight on the Chicago platform, and particularly on the money question. No compromise was to be the motto—local tickets everywhere with candidates standing squarely on the Chicago platform. But now things are different. The oratorical defier of nations and of the laws of supply and demand humbles his pride enough not to defy Tammany. He will keep out of "the enemy's country" on July 4, and will not be one of Tammany's speakers on that date, going instead to California. More than that, he will touch there or elsewhere on the issue as to what position the Tammanyites on the silver question and the rest of the cluster of questions in which it was set at Chicago. Asked the direct question, "Do you think that Tammany should reaffirm the Chicago platform?" he does not promptly say of those such a course would offend. "We entreat no more; we petition no more; we defy them." Instead of that he humbly says, "I do not care to mix in local politics." What a fall, indeed, was there! When called upon in New York by a delegation of Knights of Labor and asked to speak for municipal ownership and operation of public franchises, his similarly trimming answer was: "This is a local matter in which I ought not to be expected to interfere." Thus are the mighty fallen. Thus does the growl of the Tammany tiger chase the heroic Bryan nearly off the continent for the Fourth of July—that is to say to San Francisco.—Commercial Gazette.

Watch for This Fellow.

A flim flammer worked his game at Williamsport on Wednesday and cleared ten dollars. He entered Owen's five and ten cent store, purchased a five cent article and offered a ten dollar bill in payment. When the change was handed back he discovered that he had five cents and threw that down instead. At the same time he shoved the ten dollars in change and his own bill forward in a bunch and asked for a twenty dollar bill. He got it. The man is described as being five feet nine or ten inches tall, weighing about 150 pounds, wore a black derby hat and dark clothes, and had a dark moustache with the ends turned up.

Was Shocked to Death.

PHILADELPHIA, June 16.—Daniel Kennedy, a lineman, was shocked to death this afternoon on the top of a telegraph pole at the corner of Otis street and Girard avenue by coming in contact with an electric light wire. Kennedy had been sent up the pole to clear a ground. He caught hold of a live wire which was not insulated and fell headforemost across half a dozen other live wires. Death must have been instantaneous aside from a slight twitching of the muscles of the face, Kennedy's body was motionless. The body hung on the wires for twenty minutes before it was taken down, with the assistance of a fire truck, badly roasted.

Railway Postal Clerks Meet.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 16.—The sixth annual convention of the National Association of Railway Postal Clerks opened here to-day and will continue until Friday. About fifty delegates are present, representing from 7,500 to 8,000 postal clerks. The convention will consider measures looking to the promotion of congressional legislation in favor of the railway clerks, and also to the formation of a mutual accident branch of the national organization. It was decided to fix $1,000 as the death indemnity and fifteen dollars as the weekly accident indemnity. The matter was left to a committee.

Williamsporters Will Picnic.

Arrangements have been completed for the big picnic excursion of Williamsport Methodists to Hecla Park on Tuesday, June 22d. Two baggage cars will be attached to the excursion train, one for bicycles and one for baskets. It will be one of the largest picnics of the season as all the Methodist churches of that city are concerned in the event.

News to Tobacco Growers.

A Washington dispatch says the tobacco schedule will be taken up in the Senate as soon as the agricultural is disposed of. The probabilities are that the House rates on tobacco will be restored. Senator Quay says that he is in favor of the restoration of the House rates.

—School at the Academy closed Friday for the remainder of the summer.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

There is a General Looming Up Over the Country.

A DECREASE IN THE FAILURES

Crops are Secure for the Season and Better Times are Coming Gradually—The Different Prices Remain Firm, Etc.

TWO BIG FIRMS AGREE ON THIS

NEW YORK, June 18.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade to-morrow will say: The retarding influence of cold and unseasonable weather has passed. The gain in business which in spite of it was seen a week ago had become clearer to all.

There is evidence of gradually enlarging business in every important department, more establishments have been set at work and more hands employed and while prudence still hinders speculative excesses the progress toward better things is unchecked. Reports from the various cities this week show a very general progress and a continuing large distribution through retail trade.

The proof is clearer, as it should be, in the industrial than in the trading field. Contracts providing for the consumption of 7,000,000 tons of iron ore have already been made, 2,000,000 within the past fortnight, it is believed, though last year's contracts only terminated about two months ago. Bessemer ore is selling lower by 20 to 30 cents than at the outset. Biwabik at $2.25 against $2.55, but the heavy demand puts additional mines at work. The speculative purchase of 100,000 tons southern pig at $5.75 clears the deck for a larger business at better figures and sales at Chicago—150,000 tons—have been the largest for eighteen months. Reaction after the sudden purchase of 50,000 tons Bessemer at Pittsburg leaves the price $9.50 per ton, but the heavy orders for bars there and for 50,000 tons at Chicago, mainly from implement makers, with orders for many new building at the west, one of magnitude at Philadelphia and several at New York, the larger demand for plates and sheets, the orders for 22 miles of pipe and the purchases of steel rails which have started the new Joliet works with good orders are far more important than the speculation in materials.

Coke production has increased 2,500 tons without change in price.

The demand for print cloths for the first time in many months has exceeded the week's production and the price has risen a shade, while prints and other grades of cotton goods are in slightly better demand. There is a more widely distributed business in woolens than was expected.

In produce markets the year draws towards a close with slightly stronger prices for corn owing to heavy foreign buying, and in cotton owing to a better foreign demand notwithstanding more encouraging crop reports. Wheat was hoisted nearly two cents but fell about as much, closing a quarter higher for the week. Excellent reports from winter wheat regions west of Ohio had much influence.

Failures for the week have been 198 in the United States against 276 last year, and 36 in Canada against 25 last year.

The Boom Has Struck Howard.

The firm of Hall & Pletcher, of Howard, this county, started their stave mill on Wednesday, which has been idle for six years. They employ twelve men and have orders enough to keep them running for the next nine months. They make barrel and keg staves, and staves for paint buckets, etc. They will increase their force of men in the near future and expect to make things hum. The merchant mill will also soon begin operations at that place and will employ about 40 men. They will run a puddling mill and make all sizes of iron. How does this strike the calamity howling democratic organs of Centre county? Business is picking up all over the country and the "Advance Agent of Prosperity" is here.

He Arrives Too Late.

"I'm always just a bit too late," sighed he inventor as he threw down a patent office report.

"When I was stretching telegraph wires up in the northwest before the war, I invented a telephone with which to talk along the line. When I got back to civilization, some other fellow had the machine in working order and patented. One day I delighted my confidential friends with a phonograph, and while they were trying to buy stock in the concern along came word through the newspapers that my automatic talker was the property of some one who was just a few hours ahead of me. I was working night and day on the kinetoscope up to the time it was patented by another inventor.

"Then I concluded that I would get away from electricity for a time, for it seemed to be my hoodoo. After informing myself as to how paper was made from wood pulp I conceived the idea of producing silk from some vegetable fibre I kept at it for years, and finally my efforts were crowned with success. I used the spruce tree just as the silk worm assimilates the mulberry leaf, completing the transformation into silk by a chemical process which presented the knottiest problem I had to solve.

"But once more fate gave me the cold shoulder. A Frenchman had been secretly working on the same lines and beat me out by a lap. He has his patents all over the world, and a factory is being built in New Jersey. It means cheap silk and millions to the inventor.

"Now I'm going to try to establish communication with Mars, and I'll bet that if I succeed some other fellow that has been talking with the people there for a week or two will turn up."—Detroit Free Press.

Arrogant Vanderbilts.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., June 14.—George Vanderbilt's representative at Biltmore, his Asheville estate, declined this afternoon to allow the newspaper correspondents who accompanied President McKinley to visit the Biltmore house,

Upon this being made known the president announced that as the correspondents were members of his personal party they must be admitted or he could not visit the estate.

After considerable telephoning between the battery Park hotel and Biltmore the president's decision was finally accepted and the entire party visited the Biltmore house and grounds.

There was a good deal of indignation among the president's friends and the local reception committee over the action of the Vanderbilt agent and the charge is openly made by prominent citizens of Nashville that the agent is excluding part of the party was only carrying out the orders of Vanderbilt himself. It is even declared that Vanderbilt took this opportunity to insult President McKinley because of his refusel to comply with the request of the Vanderbilt family that Dr Depew be appointed minister to England.

Did not Intend to Harm Faure.

PARIS, June 14.—The newspapers of this city to-day agree in saying that the alleged attempt to assassinate President Faure yesterday was either a practical joke or the act of a madman, and that the so-called outrage was arranged so as not to hurt anybody.

This afternoon the police found a second tube filled with powder and scrap iron near the scene of yesterday's explosion. They are of the opinion that the miscreant is probably the man who placed explosive tubes of a similar character in the Palace de la Concorde during the recent visit of Emperor Nicholas.

A dynamite cartridge was exploded last evening in front of a cafe at La Grande Combe, thirty-six miles from Nimes, in the department of Gard, where serious labor troubles have been in progress for some time. Many of the occupants of the cafe were thrown to the ground, but nobody was seriously injured

Do you know any one who lives up to the golden rule?

It is a very old rule, dating back beyond the time of Confucius, Moses, or any known writers. It is as old as philosophy, if not as old as sense and reason.

Everyone preaches it and teaches it, but who practices it?

Are there any real neighbors among men? Is there anywhere this side of the grave a true brotherhood?

Is there a man on earth to whom you are a brother, in the true sense of the word? Is there one among you who feels in his heart that whatsoever he has belongs to the Lord and not to himself?

Surely the millennium is far off.

Capacity of the New Kilns.

The two additional kilns which A. G. Morris contemplates erecting at the Salona quarries in the near future will have a capacity of 200 bushels a day.

—The school directors of Walker township have lengthened the school term for the coming year to seven months.

Premature Burials.

We are glad to receive on this May 17th, from Col. Edward P. Vollum, M. D., formerly medical inspector of the United States army but now stopping at Dresden, Germany [care of Robert Thode & Co., Bankers], an interesting letter that there is a very active and influential society now at work in England for the prevention of premature burials, and containing a form of request to be signed by all persons interested that the society shall make sure that the body of the signer shall be neither buried nor cremated until two independent medical examinations have certified that putrefaction, the only infallible sign of actual death, has commenced, and directing that fees named for London, and for country places, shall be paid to the association for its services in carrying out the request, one copy of the request to be deposited with the association, another with a trusted member of the family, and another retained by the signer himself or herself.

We wish there were just such a society in Bellefonte to-day.

Col. Vollum writes that there is a medical commission on the subject now in session at Turin, Italy, "on account of some living burials and narrow escapes in high quarters not long since," also that the Czar of Russia and His Highness Count Karnice, the Czar's Chamberlain, are taking much interest in the subject.

Progressing.

In 1811, '12 and '13 William Petrikin was Prothonotary, Register, Recorder of Deeds and Clerk of the Orphans' Court for Centre, Clearfield and McKean counties. The total amount of fees he received in 1811, the fees being his compensation, was $247.64½; in 1812, $506.17, and in 1813, $373.59½.

Things are different now, and yet we have pessimists among us who continually ding into our ears that the country don't improve. Those people never look backward or forward, but keep their eyes and mind stationary, always waiting for something to turn up, but never try to turn something up for themselves or assist others in progressing. Thank goodness, the world moves right along to it's betterment without their aid and over their barricades of opposition.

Beaten at His Own Game.

A touching story is going the rounds, to the effect that a country merchant bought a table castor from a dollar store in a city, took it home with him, and after putting a tag on it marked fourteen dollars made a present of it to a Methodist preacher, whose church his family attended. The reverend gentleman took the package home, opened it, and examined its contents. The next day he took the castor with the tag attached back to the groceryman and said to him: "I am too poor in this world's goods to afford to display so valuable a castor on my table and if you have no objections, I would like to return it and take fourteen dollars worth of groceries instead." The merchant could do nothing but acquiesce.

No Passengers Were Hurt.

LANCASTER, Pa., June 15.—A mixed freight and passenger train on the Lancaster and Quarryville railroad, ran into a draft of five freight cars at Mellingers, seven miles south of this city, this afternoon and smashed them all. The cars had been standing upon an inclined siding, and by some means got loose, ran upon the main track and were not discovered until the train appeared at high speed. None of the passengers was hurt, though all received a severe shaken up, and Brakeman W. C. Aument, who was on top of a box car that turned completely over, saved his life by jumping down an embankment.

Blames the Police.

WILKESBARRE, Pa. June 15.—Sheriff Martin went to the county jail to-day and read the death warrant to Peter Vasalke, alias "Terrible Pete" Wesell, who is under sentence to be hanged July 22 for the murder of Joseph Krupersavage. The prisoner was very sullen during the reading of the warrent and after the sheriff had concluded he flew into a passion protesting his innocence, and saying he was the victim of a conspiracy.

OUR BORO' FATHERS.

What They Did at Monday Night's Meeting.

The following members were present, Monday evening, at the semi-monthly session of Council: President Hillibish; Messrs. Gerberich, Shortlidge, Garrity, Schaeffer and Brachbill.

Council was called to order at 7:45 by the President and the minutes of the last meeting were read by Clerk Isaac Mitchell. There being no corrections they stood approved.

Mr. Henry Wetzel, on behalf of Mr. Bower and Mr. Armor, requested that the grade be completed on East Linn street from Armor streeet to Wilson street, as they desired to lay sidewalks.

Mr. Shortlidge, of the Street committee, reported building two crossings on Curtin street. Also opened up two sewers, one on Penn and one on Lamb street.

The Street Commissioner reported burying a dog, cat and turkey, without expense to the Borough.

Chairman Gerberich reported that they had extended the water pipes 345 feet along South Potter street, past the properties owned by Mrs. L. Bush. Everything in good order.

Mr. Shortlidge stated that he noticed water running from the pave-wash in front of the Bush House; also, a great waste of water at the P. R. R. tank.

Fire and Police, Market and Village Improvement committees had nothing to report.

Chairman Shortlidge, of the Nuisance committee, reported on the bad condition of the pavement in front of Sechler's store and Adams Express company.

Mr. S. B. Miller requested that the grade be completed on Linn street, and that Linn street be covered with stone; also fix the gutters on Linn and Wilson streets.

Mr. Garrity reported that a new pavement should be laid in front of the Undine Hose house, on Logan street. Also reported the bad condition of Logan street.

Mr. Shortlidge moved that the clerk be authorized to send the Bush estate a notice that the pavement in front of Sechler's store and the flagstones in front of the Express office have been reported to Council as a nuisance, and unless the same shall be removed at once by making them in good passable condition, Council will proceed to repair the same at the cost of the owner, with 20 per cent. added. It was seconded by Mr. Schaeffer, and was so ordered.

Mr. Shortlidge moved that the Borough Engineer be ordered to get the grade on Wilson street; also, to make an estimate of the cost of completing the grade on East Linn street, and the filling up of Wilson street. Carried.

The Street committee was ordered to repair Logan street and lay the pavement in front of the Undine Hose house.

The Fire and Police committee was ordered to paint the outside of the Undine Hose house.

Mr. Brachbill reported that the Hook and Ladder truck had been placed in the old warehouse back of the McClain block. Also, took out a policy on the truck for $500 with W. B. Rankin.

There being no further business Council adjourned, after approving the following bills:
